SUPPPLEMENT.

with the concurrence of a large number of mem- solidated into one empire-perhaps that term is put down at $464,322,217. The value of pro- written an article for several months. I received government and under the protection of the is too extensive-or a Confederation, we would ducts annually raised is no less than $100,000,000. a letter last night from a friend of mine in the British Empire.

This resolution recites among other matters, have unity of action, design and sentiment. If She has 2000miles of railway, 216 miles of canals, country, who writes that he hopes the House will the fact that an unauthorized conference was that would be the result we would have union valued at $16,000,000. She has 40 colleges, with adopt Confederation. He is one of the most in- Mr.KILLAM said: I rise to deliver to you a held at Quebec. It further recites the proceed- which is strength, population which is wealth, 8,000 Grammar and Common fluential men in my own county, and has been as message, not from the Lieutenant Govers of and generally covers the ground and ante- and knowledge which is power. I think a con- Schoels, educating 500,000 pupils, and the most admirer of Mr. Howe, but he speaks in the strong. edents of the present question. In reference to federation of British North America, might be perfect system of education in the world. If est terms against the course pursued by that gen- Colonial Secretary; but from 16,000 of the the present condition of the Province - I mean so arranged and so adapted to our wan's and this is a country that is dangerous to unite flemon on this question. I met a gentleman last loyal inhabitonts of this province whom I hay . the present crisis of alarm and dauger-I would be in this is a continue that the gentlemen of the present interview of th would desire to see his countrymen one in heart, ferent and independent States, and had not uni Ganada every fifth person is at school-in Nova Conservatives to a man, and has divided the proand hand in hand, without any question agitating ted what would have been the result? Would Scotia one-tenth, ----that is, under the old law. gressive Liberals from those who are opposed to the interprise, were the first pioneers in One o that here are union and progress."

things necessary, just, and wise, that there should president-its own representatives-arranged judiciously units with her-have not taken the bed out of the middle, and he had to lie on both this Province with Canada, believing as they be but one sentiment abroad that of loyalty to its own trade relations, customs, and revenues trouble to inform these facts sides. I regret that he should have introduced do, that such a measure will demoralize the the British Crown, and that of a determination would not the state of things on this detate the reference he made to the people, alentate their affections from Grea: the Driven and that of a determination would not the state of things on this continent that are within their reach. The greatest misre-to sustain the integrity of the British Empire. I want to know if Massachusets could Anti-Union press concerning Canada. Not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has been sufficient and endanger British institutions, and endanger British institutions, present a very different aspect at this present of the country by the time. I want to know if Massachusets could Anti-Union press concerning Canada. Not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has been sufficient to the country by the to the papers that apport Confederation. It has have become the great manufacturing state she high occurs, not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has have become the great manufacturing state she high occurs, not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has have become the great manufacturing state she high occurs, not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has have become the great manufacturing state she high occurs, not a train runs off the track and to the papers that apport Confederation. It has have become the great manufacturing state she high occurs, not a train runs off the track and to the papers to the papers of the papers to the papers of the papers to the papers of the track and to the papers of the track and to the papers of the papers of the papers of the track and to the papers of the papers of the track and to the papers of the paper regard of the people for the institutions under that exist between the States were in force. The it is blazoned forth in that press; but you with matters like this. Clergymen, I contend, joyed a Legislative Assembly for over one hunan enemy, if an enemy should venture an attack; enough to form a Confederation As far as try, and the surplus of crops and revenue.- struct their people in an important crisis. There years, with full liberty to levy and appropriate it is because, in addition to the other objections territory is concerned, extending from the At With regard to the subject of Union and the fore I believe that the religious press is only per taxes; and to deprive us of these privileges, us which I have stated that I am approhensive of such antic to the Pacific, and from 42 degrees to the subject of Union and the propiet on the subject. Temperate to the subject in the propiet on the subject. Temperate to the subject in the propiet on the subject in the subject i ple do not desire-one in fact against which under British control. I think that this terri- years ago the hon, member for East Halifax in columns, and no fault can be found with it for they have petitioned, and that at a time when tory is enough to form a small kingdom in conthey have petitioned, and that at a line when they hold be found were in their allegiance, a ution with the Briaks Empire. In door which they how to be the consummation of this term of the period time of the properties of the solution with may be to the oblet runner, the solution be undisclosed though some generative of the solution with the solution of the properties of the solution with the solution of the properties of the solution with the solution of the properties of the solution with the solution of the second time of the properties of the solution with the solution of the second time of the properties of the solution with the solution of the second time of the properties of the solution with the solution of the second time of the properties of the solution with many be the theorem the solution of the second time of the properties of the solution with many be the theorem the solution with many be the theorem the solution with many be solution with the solution with the solution with the solution the theorem the solution the properties of the solution with many be solution with many be solution with many be solution with the solution to the solution the theorem the solution the properties of the solution with the solution to the solution to the solution to the solution the properties of the solution with many be solution with the solution the properties of the solution with many be solution with the solution with many be solution the solution with many be solution with many be solution the solution with many be solution the soluti to me individually what the decision of this would assume a higher tone; and the hopes and aspi-

iticians

is the

he pol-

is meaor for

have

ter the ber has ect my ill Dass ie else.

y mind

he has

urried ember course e it to re the

ly give v expe-

ity for

lone, I tice of lat be. ise the

d, we

he Reederatry and the rele our n at a ubject 1, does ate for ate of

overn-

not! eration tes de-Ameri-

defend We Vell, 1 rstand ument

s now

ple of o the given 7 rests protec-Prince at on lesex. Sir, I d_but

ritish ritish e preof comainritish ofedemore e has view, can at we d it is hat if erted. more arent nger. never nt to anner cople. les of here is he memthis itted e he tatessty's i the meait, as aling Is go gave f the this, have well wIII pose That that ve to race the

ived ause nent

e inor a the bet-

only

on on it, a stry ring

und lese here See

13

al guardians of the people, to pause, ere they force upon a loyal population a scheme against which the country is arrayed, and which must in all time to come with the true interests of which the country is arrayed, and which will militare in all time to consistent the true interests of that common country within whee borders if is our pride and provide interests of the house the following amendment and prime of the true is the consistence of Dalegates from the System was introduced. I do not the so one with the strue is and the structure of the structure whereas certain resolutions were adopted to the structure of the structure of the structure constructions with the structure of the structure the house the following amendment and prime of the structure the house the following amendment and prime of the structure of the structure of the structure the house the following amendment and prime of the structure constructure of the structure of the structure of the structure the house the following amendment and prime structure the house the following amendment and prime of the structure constructure of the structure the house the following amendment and prime and the structure the house the following amendment and prime and the structure the house the following amendment and the structure the house the following amendment and prime structure the house the following amendment and prime structure the structure structure beneath, be the structure the and the constitue and the cons

SPEECH OF MR. KILLAM.

edge the claims of all other sections to cousts to me individually what the decision of this house may be; it may be that it decision of this political life, when the term of this Legislature expires, I may not be found again within these walls, or have the ambet of the country, far count, it may be the postion do in their name I beseech the Government of the country, the construction of mane ablest of the guardians of ithe country, the construction of mane ablest of the again and the interests of all of these area to account of the pool and the interests of all of the response and the resp but those numbers must be in a position to assist each other. If you have a large territory, exposed at all points to danger, --just as Canada, --separated from you by a great tract of country, you cannot expect assistance from it. Its union with you does not bring strength, but weakness.--If you are to have trade 't must be in a position to afford it.--If we look at the map, and see the configuration of British North A m-arica, you can recognize how absurd are the argu-