

you at the throne of mercy, and we also request you to remember us in your prayers. We deeply sympathize with you in the painful ordeal of separating from your friends and kindred, but we commend you to the Lord and to the word of his grace.

We part, not expecting to meet again on earth, but we hope to meet in heaven.

May the Lord bring you and us into that eternal rest which remains for the people of God.

In behalf of the Church,
E. M. SAUNDERS, Pastor.
B. H. EATON, Clerk.
Halifax, N. S., August 5th, 1868.

REPLY:

Dear Brethren,—

I cannot express my emotions on this occasion, I find it very hard to part from you and the many dear friends and kindred in this my native land. I have been very happy in your communion, I can never forget you, nor cease to pray for your prosperity as a church of the living God. I thank you most sincerely for the free expression of your confidence in, and sympathy for me and mine. It will be a source of great comfort to us when far away to know that we are remembered by you at a throne of grace.

Many years ago God called me to the ministry in which work I was very happy, until I was forced to leave it by repeated hemorrhage of the lungs. This was the sorest trial of my life, but God sustained me.

For five years I have tried to serve God in secular pursuits during which time I have preached as much as my strength would allow.

Now dear brethren though 'tis hard to say farewell to meet no more on earth, yet I am greatly comforted with the hope that in New Zealand, I shall be able to devote myself wholly to the work of the ministry. And that when our work is done on earth, we shall meet in our Father's house in heaven.

Be assured I do not leave my country for wealth or fame. My sole desire is to be more useful. Until we receive the crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous judge will give us in that day

Dear brethren, farewell,
A. F. PORTER.
