Treatment of Clay Land.

I had a patch of hard clay land in one of my fields, containing about ball an acre; it was so hard that we could not plough it with two horses, and when it was ploughed, it came up in large lumps from one loot long to three; the harrow would bound and bounce along over it, and you could not see where it had been; we could not plant it for the lumps, It was a source of trouble and vexition to me, and I determined to do something with it; so I went to work. I put a large blind drain through the middle of the patch; this was my main drain. Then I ran from the the main drain small ones each way, twenty feet apart, to the outside of the clay patch. I laid in a two inch tile drain. Theo I drew on a large amount of corn cobs and coarse manure; then summer fallowed; then in fall I drew on a large amount of well rotted manure, and sowed wheat, and it was by far the best wheat that I had in the field, and I never after saw any clay lumps to speak of in the patch. It was the best land to plough that I had, and raised the largest crops, and I am satisfied that if farmers would drain and manure their clay lands heavily, it would richly pay them for the trouble and expense, and be a saving in horse flesh and harrow teeth. -Cor. Country Gent.

READ THIS.

New Albany, Ind., March 12, 1867. For forty years I have been afflicted with costiveness, and for the last twenty was compelled daily to resort to injections to secure an evacuation. In December last I commenced the use of Radway's Pills. After taking a few doses, my liver, stomach, and bowels were restored to their natural strength and duties. have now a regular movement once a day, and although 80 years of age, feel as hearty and strong as I did 40 years ago.

Dr. Radway, N. Y. Tuos. REDPATE, J. P.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system; abused or debilitated by excess-indigestion, offensive breathand physical prostration are the natural conse-quences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints, and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected, and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathise by Costiveness, Diarrhosa, and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, Lowels, and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

THE LAST MILK FROM THE UDDER .--- D. Anderson says he has found by practical analysis in one instance that the last cup of milk drawn from the cow's udder contained sixteen times as much cream as the first one. This separation of cream from milk takes place in part in the udder of the cow, particularly if the cow is suffered to stand ut rest for some time previous to milking. If there are pecple who doubt that there is a difference in the richness of milk first drawn, their doubts will be specdily removed bp milking hall a dozen cows and setting the first half drawn from each cow separate from the last half .----Utica Weekly Herald.

GATHERING FRUIT .- The appearance and the value of fruit depend very much upon when and how it is gathered.

Pears and apples should never be picked from the tree by breaking the stems. Unless the stem will separate freely from the tree, the fruit is not ripe; will neither eat nor cook good, and is only fit for those who want a touch of the cholera morbus. Apples, as gathered, may be sent directly to market, but nearly every kind of pear is improved in appearance and quality by keeping in close dar, drawers, wrapped in flannel or soft paper, or packed in bran for a tew days.

Is in receipt of an important official document sigued by the Professors of the Medical College of Breslau, Prussia, embodying the result of an analysis of RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

Instituted for the satisfaction of the Prussian Government and people. It appears that the great popularity of the pills throughout Germany, as an aperient, antibilious and alterative medicine, had provoked the malice of the apothecaries, who caused a report to be circulated that the ingredients were poisonous. Therefore, a scientific inquisition into their nature and properties was ordered, the issues of which was a most triumphant vinceation of the sanitary value of the Pills.

The Faculty of the College state in their report that after a careful and minute examination, they have the honour to state that " the pills are not only free from every substance injurious to health, but are composed wholly of substances and elements promotive of digestion. and certain at the same time to act favourably upon the nervous system," &c., &c. They state, further, that the injurious rumours set affoat by the Prussian apothecaries originated " in a mean spirit of trade jealousy, excited by the great celebrity attained by the Pills within by the use of this emolient ; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will ce found to be thorough and invariable.
