At New Caledonia, on the 4th of June, 1868, Mr. William Jettney, aged 93 years. The deceased was first impressed with a sense of his sout's need many years ago, while witnessing the administration of Baptism by Elder Potter of Clements. He was subsequently converted, baptised and united with the Baptist Church. He was a diligent student and ardent lover of the Bible. The Doctrine of Divine Soveregnty and kindred doctrines were especially his delight. His end was peaceful and triumphant. By request the Rev. Isa. Wallace delivered a discourse in connexion with his death from Psaim lxxiii. 26

At Lower Granville, on the 2nd August, 1868, after a lingering and painful i.lness, borne with pious re-ignation to the Divine Will, Mrs. Phebe Fleet, aged 46 years, leaving a husband and 6 children to moura her loss.

At Lower Granville, on the 15th Sept., 1868, quite suddenly, Mr. Thomas Roblee, aged 65 years, leaving a wife and five children to deplore the loss of a fond husband and affectionate father. May the consolations of religion support the bereaved !

On the 2nd of October, 1868, very suddenly, Mr. Joseph Hardy, of Granville, aged 68 years, leaving a wife and 4 children to mourn his death The deceased was absent from his residence in the evening, and not returning, even at a late hour, his family concluded he had resolved to spend the night at his brother's. In the morning the son was overwhelmed with surprise and sorrow to find his father in the field not far from home in a state of unconsciousness. He had remained out all night. His stiffered body was brought in to his weeping family and in a few hours he expired. It is supposed he died of apoplexy. This remarkably sudden death speaks to all in solemn tones, "Be ye also ready." May Heaven sustain the sorrowing!

On the 4th Oct., 1868, at Lower Granville, Serethand Jane, 2nd daughter of John and Maria Marshall, rates, by

At Lower Granville, on the 10th Oct., of consumption, Mrs. Sarah Cronine, aged 36 years, leaving a husband and two children. The departed was baptised and received into the Baptist Church, in Lower Granville, about 6 years ago, by the present Pastor. And was enabled by God's grace to adorn her profession. In her death her husband and children have lost a fond wife and mother, her parents and brothers an affectionate daughter and sister, and the church a useful and highly esteemed member; but our loss is her eternal gain.

A Valuable Improvement

several recent patents. From this date (October, 1868), it will be known as the Mason & Hamiin Improved Vox Humana or Fan Tremeto,

And excels every other attachment of this general class in the beauty of its effects, the perfect ease with which it is operated, its durability and freedom from liability to get out of order.

I. In connection with the Automatic Swell, (ex clusively used in the M. & H. Cabinet Organs), it produces the nearest approach to the peculiarly sympathetic, rich and attractive quality of a fine human voice yet attained in any reed instrument.

2. It is operated by the ordinary action of the bellows of the instrument, and requires no separate pedal, being played by the same motion, and as easily as an instrument without it.

3. It has no clockwork or machinery, and is entirely free from liability to get out of order, and as durable as the instrument itself.
