Our object was to shew that supplementary aid was given to the Ministers of some churches, and that the Baptists should try to place their brethren in sumilar situation, also in as good a position as possible. We Presbyterian Church of Richmond, on Thursdo not pretend to understand all the various funds of our Wesleyan brethren, or their sources of income, nor need we. The principel, on which they act in this, as well in asother respects is a good one-" All at it, and always at it." We fear that many of the members of Baptist Churches contribute nothing to the support of the gospel ministry. Even so little -- if it were only a penny a week-trom those who can afford no morewould meet the Master's approval as the widow's " two mites" did.

The monies first above mentioned appear from the "Minutes of Conference" to be derived from contributions to the Home Mission and Contingent Funds, together with "a grant from the Parent Conference of $13 .-315.62" whilst the latter contributions are made " to the General Fund," which, it appears, is raised for the the "Missionary Society;" we suppose the same as their English Foreign Missionary Society, and from which the Missionaries, - ministers in this province as well as other Foreign countries, -are sustained.

The amount received from that fund we suppose it is to which we referred, but that does not appear in the Minutes of this Conference. We shall be glad of any further correction from our brother who is so much interested in open communion matters.

"The Sunday School Times" for January 4th, 1868, is received and "The Christian at Work" for October 1868. They may be had of Rev. A. McBean Halifax, the former at $1.30 a year, and the latter (monthly) at 50 cents.
