Driving Horses at Plowing.

The subject of driving horses before the plow is an important one to every farmer, for good driving and good plowing go together, and good, easy plowing is no small item in farming. I have seen one man take a team to plow, and permit them to walk so fast that they had to stop every few rods to breathe, and thereby lose more time and injure the team more, and not make as good work by far, as if they had been driven slowly. I have seen another man take two horses that had been used singly in a buggy, one much lighter and much faster than the other, and (neither of which had been used to plowing) hitch them to the plow, and in a short time have them go step by step with each other what pace he wished, and so straight as to surprise his employer. While the former plowman made bad work by letting some slices fall back, setting some on edge, and leaving dead furrows from two to three feet wide, the latter would turn all well over, and in finishing up would leave a dead furrow only the breadth of the plow, and as straight as need be, without making any "turns" or short furrows. The good plowman did his work much easier to himself and team than the other. Both pieces were in corn, and the best plowed was easiest tended.

The best way that I know of to tie horses that have been in the habit of going too fast is the following:—Use the cord lines, (those thick at the hind ends are best for lazy horses), instead of the short stick between their heads. I prefer a coupling strap, with a spring hook at each end, and buckle in the middle, or a cord line will do. We do not want horses always the same distance apart, especially in finishing up, and besides the stick is not pleasant to a tender-mouthed horse when turning around, especially if the driver does not believe in it, or if he is not kind to his team. If one horse is faster than the other, instead of hanging the check rein on the harness as usual, put it back between the hames, tie a short line to the other horse's whiffletree, or to his trace forward of it. When the fast horse steps forward, he steps into his "bit"; if he has a tender mouth he may rear, but by the time his feet are off the ground the other horse makes a step and his rein is slack, and he learns to go slow before he is tired. If both horses are too fast, tie them both in the same way. As to driving, every good farmer establishes a communication with himself and team peculiar to himself—not, however by putting the lines around the back, nor by hanging them on the haudles, unless they have more practise than is usual on small farms. The boy that took the prize without lines had practise. The place for the lines is in the plowmen's hands, where he can let it slip through his fingers, or gather it in as needed. With lines, properly used, words are seldom needed; with sufficient practise words properly spoken do away to a great extent with the use of lines.—"Come" and "gee" are all the words necessary, besides speaking to each horse by name; they should be spoken to kindly. If a horse is lazy, a stroke with a cord shows him his pace much quicker than unkind words. I know of no surer way to break up a bad practise than that which ended the boy to drive his team without lines—namely, the offer of a prize.—American Agriculturist.

ADHESIVE WASH FOR FENCES, ETC.—Put a half pound of tallow or lard into a gallon of slack lime, and apply it while warm. The utility of adding tallow must be obvious to all minds, viz: to penetrate the wood, and to shed the rain without destroying the wash.

Oxygenized Air;

A CURE FOR

CATARRH,

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS,

APPLIED BY

DR. C. L. BLOOD,

No. Montgomery Place, BOSTON, MASS.

CHRONIC CATARRH.

Why entertain this loathsome disease when relief can be obtained? We meet those every day who are suffering from Catarrh to such an extent, that the Air Passages in the head are in a partly decomposed condition,—the nose and throat filled with such a mass of corrupt matter that they are objects of disgust to themselves, and of pity to those with whom they associate.

Chronic Catarrh usually affects the head, fauces and bronchial tubes. It is usually caused by humoral or inflammatory blood, by which the mucous membrane is made sore or inflamed, producing a copious effusion of viscid matter. If it be produced by Soro-fula in the blood it is almost certain to end in Consumption, unless speedily cured, because it is impossible to entirely prevent the matter from running down the bronchial into the air vesicles, and such is the exsoriating, or scalding property of the matter, its contact with the delicate linings of the air-cells at once causes irritation, and invites the humoral properties of the blood to deposit therein Tubercles and Ulcers.

Catarrh almost always attends Consumption, and frequently leads to it.

In Oxygenized Air we have a positive cure for this disease. The remedy is taken by inhalation,—breathed directly into the lungs, and through them carried into the blood; thus as soon as the blood will carry it, it reaches all parts of the system, decomposing the impure matter in the blood and expelling it through the pores, and through the natural channels from the system. Thus you will see that the cause of the disease is removed, and the disease itself must follow.

In this same manner we treat and radically cure Bronchitis and Consumption. Let no one suffering from these diseases despair of relief. If you are too far away to visit our office and see us personally, write a description of your symptoms, and forward to the address below.

Send for our circular, which gives a full description of these diseases.

Out of the many thousands of testimonials received we publish the following:—

Dr. C. L. BLOOD,
 Dear Sir: I desire to give you my testimony in regard to the value of your scientific system of treating Catarrh and diseases of the Respiratory Organs. I have used your remedy, "Oxygenized Air," in my practice for the last year with complete success. I have cured the worst forms of Catarrh, and a majority of the cases of Bronchitis and consumption in their advanced stages. I unqualifiedly pronounce "Oxygenized Air" the greatest boon ever yet conferred upon our suffering race, and hope the day is not far distant when every intelligent physician will adapt your system in the treatment of all forms of chronic affections.

Fraternally yours,

L. M. LEE, M. D.

No. 199 Westminster Street Providence.

Dr. C. L. BLOOD,
 My Dear Sir: I have tested your remedy "Oxygenized Air" in advanced stages of Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption, and the results have been, in the highest sense, satisfactory; so positive am I of its wonderful power to arrest the progress of the above named diseases that I can conscientiously advise all who may be suffering from them to place themselves under the treatment at once.

Respectfully yours,

REV. R. TOMLINSON,

Plymouth, Mass.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

Every Man his own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

AND

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system; abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints, and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected, and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels, and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom, and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic diseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------------|
| Bunions, | Mercurial Eruptions, |
| Burns, | Piles, |
| Chapped Hands, | Rheumatism, |

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON" are discernible as a Water mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
