

last year in England and Ireland, including several of the leaders. Cortello and Warren, Fenian prisoners, have been set free. Baron Lionel De Rothschild (liberal) has been elected to Parliament from London city, in place of Mr. Bell (conservative). 24.—Ship "Montblanc," Capt. Chase, from Sutherland, 26th ult., for Boston, was damaged in a gale and obliged to return. She arrived at Queenstown to-day, leaking badly. 25.—The Solicitor-General has introduced a Bill in the House of Commons abolishing University tests. Mr. Bright made a speech at the associated Chamber of Commerce, in which he urged the importance and necessity of adopting a system of ocean penny postage. In the House of Commons this afternoon, an enquiry was made as to whether the usual legal investigation before pardon has been made, in the case of the Fenian convicts recently released from prison. Mr. Fortescue replied that what investigation the Government had made, was quite sufficient, as their cases differed from ordinary commutations of sentence. In reply to a question Mr. Monsell said, that negotiations for the settlement between the Hudson's Bay Company and the Dominion of Canada, were still pending, and it was undecided to make any statement as to the prospect of building telegraph lines through the territories of the Company to connect the Atlantic with the Pacific coast, until a complete adjustment was reached. In reply to a request of Mr. Simmons for information Mr. Otway said that the Government had received no authentic advices of the rejection of the Alabama Convention by the United States; not had it any information whatever in regard to the naturalization protocol. The Bank of England decrease is £200,000 sterling. 26.—In the case of Sawin vs Starr, during the trial of which exposures were made of convent life in England, a verdict was to-day rendered for the plaintiff, who is awarded damages to the amount of £500. The War Office has received official despatches from New Zealand announcing further successes over the rebels. The troops have carried by assault the Maori stronghold, Naitapap. The natives made a desperate defence, and lost 200 in killed and wounded, while the British loss was only 22. March 1.—Advices from New Zealand report an action at Poverty Bay, in which the natives lost ninety killed, and the British three wounded. A report is current that the present Spanish minister to England has received instructions from Madrid to proceed to Washington to settle any differences which may arise in consequence of the Cuba insurrection. FRANCE.—Paris, Feb. 28.—M. Truplougé, the President of the French Senate, died yesterday, aged 62 years. SPAIN.—Madrid advices state that the press of the country urge upon the Provisional Government the necessity of preserving the friendship of the United States. Feb. 23.—In the Spanish Constitutional Cortes yesterday, Senor Serrano, the Prime Minister, officially announced the resignation of the Provisional Government. General Prim, Minister of War, in his address assured the House that the late Dynasty would never ascend the Throne. Admiral Topet, Minister of War affairs, asked the House to pass an act of indemnity to the Navy for its acts during the revolution. Subsequently the House passed a vote of thanks to the retiring Provisional Government, although the Republican members opposed it with unanimity. The House also by a large vote entrusted Marshal Serrano with full executive powers for the time being, and granted him the authority necessary for the formation of a New Ministry. General Cabellero DeRodo, is to succeed General Dulce as Governor-General of Cuba. Feb. 28.—During the Session of the Spanish Constituent Cortes last evening, the Prime Minister, Marshal Serrano, said that notwithstanding the retirement of the late Provisional Government, the ministers who composed it would still retain their seats in the Cortes. He stated further, that the policy of the Government would be to follow the programme which the revolution had established. Every effort will be made to disarm the attacks of the Republicans, reducing expenditure in all quarters, and pursuing a liberal policy generally. He regretted that the Liberal reforms, which had been contemplated for Cuba, had been recently delayed, by reason of the insurrection there. An insurrection has been attempted in Barcelona, but it was quickly suppressed. About forty persons connected with the conspiracy have been arrested, and the city is now tranquil. PERSIA & TURKEY.—London, Feb. 25.—Hostilities between Persia and Turkey have been suspended until the arrival of the Persian Ambassador, who is now on his way to this city.

Deaths.

In Bridgetown, Sept. 23th, in the 89th year of his age, Mr. James Stoddman. Mr. S. was an old disciple, diligent and retiring, but of a quiet and happy disposition. It was a matter of grief to him that he had not publicly put on Christ and connected himself with the Church. His life was exemplary, his hope in Christ became very strong, and his end was peaceful and triumphant. May God comfort the aged and disconsolate widow, and lead surviving children and friends to consecrate themselves to Christ and prepare to meet God. (C. Visitor please copy.)—Com. by Rev George Armstrong. Near Bridgetown, Aug. 28th, 1868, Mr. Mardeen Messinger, son of the late Henry Messinger, aged 27 years. His end was very sudden. May God comfort the bereaved and bless them with needful grace.—Jb. Near Round Hill, Annapolis, Oct. 22nd, 1868, Mr. R. M. Kent, in the 22nd year of his age. This young man was a member of the Baptist Church. He was cut off suddenly by the insidious destroyer—consumption; but he entertained hope in the Saviour. There is comfort for the mourners.—Jb. In Bridgetown, Nov. 11th, 1863, Mr. Samuel Hamilton, aged 53 years. Mr. H. was quiet, unobtrusive and reliable. Though deeply afflicted, yet he was patient and sustained by the hope of the Gospel. There is comfort for the mourning family.—Jb. Near Bridgetown, Nov. 10th, 1868, Mrs. Phebe Chute, widow of the late James Chute, in the 87th year of her age. An old and faithful disciple and a member of the church for many years. She was strong in faith, earnest in love to Christ and her people, joyful in hope, exemplary in life, patient in tribulation, and triumphant in death.—Jb. Near Bridgetown, Janv. 19th, 1869, Harriet Julia, the beloved wife of Mr. Calvin Corbett and daughter of Mr. John A. Morse, in the 25th year of her age. She bore a protracted illness with patience, became strong in the hope of salvation through Christ, and experienced in her closing hours the sustaining power of divine grace. May the mourners be comforted and obtain spiritual profit by their loss.—Jb. At Round Hill, Annapolis, Janv. 25th, 1869, Mr. James Bishop, aged 46 years. Mr. B. was called away very suddenly—his death resulted from injuries received by a loaded team passing over his body. By what means Mr. B. became prostrate and suffered as he did is not known, as no person was in the immediate vicinity at the time. The preceding Sabbath he was in the house of God, listening apparently with great attention to the Gospel. How earnest and pressing the call, "be ye also ready!" May God comfort the deeply afflicted widow, and sustain the aged and stricken father.—Jb. At Rosette, Annapolis, Feb. 1st., 1869, Mr. John Winchester, aged 89 years. Mr. W. endured his afflictions with great patience, expressed resignation to the Divine Will and hope in the merits of Jesus Christ. May God comfort surviving relatives and lead them onward in the path of peace and righteousness.—Jb. On Tuesday, 23rd ult., William Scoles, in the 71st year of his age. At Antigua, on the 10th Janv., of consumption, Cyril Critchton, aged 34 years. On Monday, the 22nd inst., in the 24th year of her age, Ellen Foley. On Monday, 22nd ult., Mr. Frederick Mallory, late Schoolmaster Royal Artillery, in the 29th year of his age. On the 18th ult., at Bay Roberts, Newfoundland, Hon. James Cormack, in the 62nd year of his age. At the Poor's Asylum, Feb. 23rd, Bridget Kelly, aged 69 years. Feb. 24th, Alexander Tobin, (colored) aged 52 years. Feb. 23rd, James Dickey, aged 75 years. On Thursday, 25th ult., aged 55 years, Mr. Martin Benders. On Wednesday, George Henry, eldest son of John and Catharine Luffield, in the 24th year of his age. At Maitland, Hunt's Co., on the 4th ult., Mr. Alexander Cadie, aged 39 years. On the 24th ult., Sarah DeWyer, in the 45th year of her age. On the 25th ult., Miss Catharine Rice, daughter of Mrs. Catharine Rice, in the 24th year of her age, late of Lower Prospect. On the 27th ult., Mary Aaa, the beloved wife of Wm. H. Johns, in the 24th year of her age. On Saturday, 27th ult., in the 92nd year of her age, Sarah, widow of the late Jonathan Pressott, Esq. On Sunday, 28th ult., Louisa Coleman, in the 55th year of her age. On the 1st inst., John Lambert, aged 70 years. At the Poor's Asylum, Feb. 25th, Sarah Gilmaster, aged 80 years.

TO LET,

FOR a period of one or more years, from the first day of May next, that pleasantly situated Dwelling house and premises, at Bridgetown, in the County of Annapolis, formerly owned and occupied by the late Thomas Spurr, and now belonging to the Estate of the late T. Lovett Bishop. This property consists of the large and convenient dwelling house—a horse stable and coach house, and all necessary outbuildings—about twelve acres of land attached, including the large front lawn, judiciously planted with ornamental and fruit trees, and the Garden, enclosed by a hawthorn hedge and stocked with an extensive variety of fruit bearing shrubbery; and pear, plum, and cherry trees, and the whole of the land in the highest state of cultivation. Besides the above there is a field containing ten acres, separated from it only by an intervening field of equal size, owned by another proprietor. The property described, being situate within a walk of five or ten minutes only from the Railway Station, will form a most desirable residence for a gentleman and family who may be desirous to remove from the city to a healthy rural residence, and where all the accessories of comfort and happiness are available at a cheap annual rental, and a moderate annual expenditure. For terms, and other particulars, parties are requested to apply to Hon. S. L. SHANNON, Halifax, or to either of the Subscribers— CHARLOTTE BISHOP SMITH, EXECUTRIX. T. W. CHESLEY, ESCUTOR.
