Christ. During his last illness which continued but one week, he was remarkably sustained by God's Grace. Bro. Hall was highly esteemed as a worthy member of the Christian church, and as an upright and obliging member of the community generally. He has left one son, Capt. Joseph Hall, now at sea, three surviving daughters and a considerable number of grand and great-grand children to mourn the loss of one they dearly loved.—Com. by Rev. I. Wallace.

John M. Blair fell asleep in Jesus at Onslow, Jan. 24th, 1869, aged 41 years. The deceased dated his early impressions of religion to the time when he was a little boy—attending the day school kept by our good Brother, Rev. James Read, whose custom it was to impress upon the school the importance of giving their hearts to Jesus. These early impressions followed him until he was enabled to trust in Jesus, and was enabled to make a public profession of religion about fifteen years ago, in connection with the Baptist Church at Onslow. By the Grace of God he was enabled to live a constant life. The writer stood by his bedside in his last sickness, and can testify to the strong faith he had in the Redeemer. He leaves a widow, one child, an aged mother, brothers and sisters, to mourn his departure.—C.
