Arriving at the camp they found all quiet and apparently deserted; but on entering saw far from satisfactory. The republicans are disthe bodies of twelve men lying on the floor cold satisfied with the action of the Cortes, in estabin death. Being somewhat exhausted by their lishing a regency, and trouble is expected when journey, the relief party were about to warm some ten that was already made in the kettle, but on examination they found a large lizard in the kettle, which had been boiled with the tea. It is supposed that the drinking of this tea was the cause of the death of the twelve unfortunate men .- Fredericton Farmer.

THE GREAT MUSICAL PEACE FESTIVAL,-We learn from a friend who was in Boston on the first day of the great Peace Jubilee, that it was a really grand affair, surpassing the expectations of the most sanguine. The firing of cannon and the striking of 200 anvils in parts of the choruses had a magnificent affect. The lowest price of the tickets was two dollars, reserved seats much higher. Tickets for the whole season were $100

A telegram states that:-"It seemed as if the storm of sweet sounds would literally bear away the roof of the Coliseum.

Persons of very delicate musical sensibilities were perfectly overcome, and several ladies

The Great Organ, built by the Messrs. Hook, surpassed all expectations, specially in the efforts of the Tuba Mirabilis, which neither the Choruses nor the Orchestra could drown. It was supplied with air by relays of men who pumped it in, a dozen at a time.

The solos, vocal and instrumental, the former by Madame Parepa-Rosa, were most effective and delightful, forming pleasing contrasts to the thundering choruses of voices and instruments and the reverberations of cannon,

There are disputes as to the distance at which the sound was heard, but it was much less than was expected. There were 50,000 persons in the building to-day, but as there are 150,000 strangers in the city, who desire to visit it, besides the citizens, it will be several days before the public cariosity is satisfied.

The value of a constitution which moves a majority in one house in favor of, and in the other house against a given policy, may be questioned. Why is it when the Crown and Commons are in harmony with the nation the Lords are in direct opposition? As long as the House of Lords act in harmony with the country, they may go on for a long time; but when they thwart its course, they may meet with unpleasant accidents.

LONDON, June 16,-The Press generally censures Mr. Bright's letter to the Birmingham meeting. The Times commenting on the proceedings in the House of Lords on the Irish Church Bill, says the debate exhibits moderation and patriotism.
