FRANCE, Paris, July 12 .- The Emperor sent a message to the Corns Legislatif, in which be made known his decision to convene the Senate for the consideration of the reforms demanded to-day.

In accordance with the Emperor's decision, the French Senate will convene on August 2, and the Corps Legislatif will be immediately prorogued. The Thiers party have withdrawn their interpollation.

The Emperor proposes to make certain concessions to the new Chamber of Deputies. The following are the principal of these;

The Senate is to be convened to consider-1st. The right of the Corps Legislatif to elect its own officers. 2d. The simplification of the method of presenting and examining amendments to project of laws. 3d. The submission to the Corps of commercial treaties for approval. 4th The control of the budget. 5th. The abolition of any incompatibility which exists between the holding at the same time a seat in the Corps and office in the Ministry. 6th. The extension of the right of interpollation. Similar questions with regard to the Senate to be hereafter be considered.
