We hope these efforts will be desks and drawers broken open. Papers were crowned with success.—Eastern Chron. strewed about the floor, mingled with a quantity of blasting powder. A kerosene oil lamp in the office had been broken and the oil spilled about the floor. Efforts had also been made to explode an iron safe. On Friday Mr. Harvey received a considerable quantity of specie and the loafers about the wharf were aware of the fact. It is therefore supposed that the object of the burglars was to obtain possession of this money. Three young men, named, respectively, John Francis, James Connors and John Donavan, were arrest- Boston, to Miss Selma, daughter of Edward Parker, ed and retained in custody upon suspicion of Esq. having perpetrated the burglary.- Colonist.

CHARGE OF SHOOTING .- The Stipendiary Magistrate's court was engaged several days last week in the investigation of a charge made by a young woman named Mary McKay, against two young men named, Sweet and Geldert, of attempting to shoot her. The evidence revealed a Greenfield, to Miss Charlotte A. Fancy, of Lahaver sad state of immorality in the parties concerned. The ends of justice might have been served as well, we think, without the publication of all the details given in evidence. The Stipendiary Magistrate reserved judgement in the case till Thursday, to-morrow. Thursday, to-morrow.
