SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGANS!

FACILITIES

for the production of Musical Instruments consist of

Well-chosen Materials,
Labor-saving Machinery,
Musical Knowledge and Experience,
Refined Taste in Decoration,
Division of Manual Labor,
Active Personal Supervision, and Ample Capital.

The Messrs. SMITH believe that their

FACILITIES ARE UNEQUALLED,

and that their Establishment cannot be surpassed in any of these particulars.

☞ But it is not claimed that the AMERICAN ORGAN is sold at the lowest price,—as the manufacturers have no desire to waste their time upon feeble and characterless instruments, nor to furnish a supply of dissatisfactions, even at the low price of $50 each. Nothing worthy can be produced for such a sum

BY ANY HOUSE WHATEVER.

The Messrs. Smith mean to make ONLY the best reed instruments, and they are satisfied that a discriminating public is willing to pay the value of what it gets.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN

is elegant in appearance,—thoroughly constructed—with powerful and steady bellows,—with exquisitely-voiced reeds,—finely contrasted qualities of tone, and ingenious mechanical contrivances for increase of power and for expression.

This excellence is not the result of chance, but follows their well-devised system, so that each Organ is perfect of its kind; there is no more chance for inferior work than in the Springfield Armory.

Every Instrument is Warranted.

 An elegantly illustrated Circular, containing descriptions and prices, will be sent post-paid, on application.

Dear Sir,—It is with pleasure I send you this Testimony of the effects of your wonderful medicine. I have been troubled with cramp in my stomach at intervals for 8 years, sometimes I thought I would die—last July I had one that came on in the night very severe, and after I had taken one dose it cured me at once. On December 20th, I was attacked with Bilious Cholic and so violent that I thought I was going to die. My friends wanted me to send for a doctor, but I said No go and get me a bottle of Gates' Syrup They stirred and in one hour after I took the first dose. I was relieved of all my pains. It acted like a charm, I think it a duty I owe you, and also to those who may be attacked similarly to send you this testimony.

Personally appeared the subscriber and maketh oath to the contents of the above as correct.
