". There appeared in these our days a man of great vi tue named JESUS CHRIST, who is yet alive amorgst us, and of the Gentiles is accepted for a Prophet of Tru h but his own disciples called him the son of God. He raiseth the dead and cureth all manner of oneases. A man o stature somewhat tall and co arly, with a very re-erend countenance such as the beholders may both love and fear; his hair of the colour of phi bert full ripe and plain almost down to his ears; but from the ears downward somewhat carled, and more orient of c lour, waving on his shoulders. In the midst of his head woeth a scars, or partition of his hair after the manner of the Nazirites; his forehead, very plain and smooth; his face, without spot or writkle, beaut fled with a come ly red; his nose and mouth so formed as nothing can be reprehended; his beard somewhat thick agreeable in colour to the bair of his head, not of any great length, in the mid tol an ian cent and mature look; his eyes rey clear and quick In reproving, he is terrible: in adm nishing courteous and fair spoken: p'ensint in speach, mixed with gravity. It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. In proportion of body, well shaped and straight; his hands and arms right, and de eccable to behold; in s, eaking, very temperate, modest and wise. A man for singular beauty surpassing the chil-
