"THE LIFE OF JESUS THE CHRIST"

BY REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

"The crowning work of the Author"—who is acknowledged the most popular living writer. Agents wanted in every county of Nova Scotia to whom exclusive territory, and the most liberal terms will be given. Descriptive circulars and full information given on application to JOHN KILLAM, SENR., General Agent of publisher. Yarmouth, N. S.

Dear Editor,

Bro. John Killam, General Agent for the Rev. H. W. Beecher's "Life of Jesus the Christ" handed me a few days ago the first volume of the celebrated work with a request that I should examine it and express an opinion as to its merits. From a hasty examination I may safely say this work cannot be read without interest and profit. It is written in the rare and fascinating style peculiar to its world-renowned author, and while it cannot be regarded as a critical work it indicates much research in the part of its author.

I quote a sentence from Mr. Beecher's account of the baptism of Jesus which indicates the convictions of its Author upon the act, as well as the beauty and simplicity of the style in which the book is written:—"They went down together, the son of Elizabeth and the son of Mary, John and Jesus, into the old river Jordan that neither hastened nor slackened its current at their coming; for the Messianic sign was not to be from the waters beneath but from the heavens above."

I trust bro. Killam may be successful in circulating this useful work through the country.

Yours truly, ISA. WALLACE. Milton, Yarmouth, Oct. 27, 1871. 2ins. Nov. 1.

A Finely-executed Engraving, THE ONLY TRUE LIKENESS OF

OUR SAVIOUR.

Taken from one cut in an Emerald by command of Tiberius Caesar and which was given from the Treasury of Constantinople, by the Emperor of the Turks, to Pope Innocent VIII, for the Redemption of his Brother, then a Captive to the Christians.

The following Extract, in proof of the Authenticity of the above Portrait, is translated from the Latin contemporary Historians of the period.

"News to the Senate of Rome concerning Jesus Christ in the days of Tiberius Caesar the Emperor, as the governors of sundry provinces under the Senate and people of Rome used to advertise the Senate of such news as chanced in diverse countries.

"Publius Lentulus, being at that time president in Judaea, wrote an epistle to the Senate and people of Rome, the words whereof were these:—

"There appeared in these our days a man of great virtue, named Jesus Christ, who is yet alive amongst us, and of the Gentiles is accepted for a Prophet of Truth; but his own disciples called him the Son of God. He raiseth the dead and cureth all manner of diseases, A man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a very reverend countenance, such as the beholders may both love and fear; his hair of the colour of phibert full ripe, and plain almost down to his ears: but from the ears downward somewhat curled, and more orient of colour, waving on his shoulders. In the midst of his head goeth a seam, or partition of his hair, after the manner of the Nazarites; his forehead, very plain and smooth; his face, without spot or wrinkle, beautified with a comely red: his nose and mouth so formed as nothing can be reprehended; his beard somewhat thick, agreeable in colour to the hair of his head, not of any great length, in the midst of an inn cent and mature look; his eyes grey, clear and quick. In reproving, he is terrible; in admonishing, courteous and fair-spoken; pleasant in speech, mixed with gravity. It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. In proportion of body, well-shaped and straight; his hands and arms right, and delectable to behold; in speaking, very temperate, modest and wise. A man for singular beauty surpassing the children of men."
