

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

ENGLAND.—Sir Henry Bulwer has been elevated to the Peerage as Baron Dalling and Bulwer.

In the House of Commons Mr. Lowe gave notice that the Budget would be presented immediately after the Easter holidays.

The House voted £53,000 for the relief of Paris.

An earthquake was felt in all the northern counties of England on Friday night.

In the House of Lords on Friday last, the policy of the British Government towards China was denounced by Earl Gray and the Duke of Somerset.

In the Commons Mr. Gladstone said there was no intention on the part of the Government to prosecute the speakers of treasonable language, at the recent republican meeting in London; also the Government was not disposed to press any claims against France for property of British subjects destroyed.

Messrs. Dixon, Mundella, and John Bright eloquently opposed the new Army Bill, but the Government was sustained by a majority of 204.

The Easter recess of British Parliament commences 4th, and will last until 17th of April.

In the House of Commons Viscount Enfield stated that Lord Lyons had been instructed to accompany the French Government to Versailles, and that every arrangement had been made to protect the life and property of British subjects in Paris.

Napoleon visited Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle on Monday.

The marriage of the Marquis of Lorne to the Princess Louise took place on Tuesday. A special despatch to the Reporter states that the marriage took place in St. George's Chapel, Windsor.

There was a grand gathering of princes, princesses, nobility, &c. The bridegroom was dressed in Highland costume. The Queen wore a low neck black satin dress, a diamond coronet, and magnificent veil.

Princess Louise, made a most attractive bride, being apparelled in a white satin dress with a white velvet train, and wearing a Honiton lace veil, and orange flowers in her hair.

There were eight bridesmaids. The Bishops of London, Winchester, Worcester, and Oxford, performed the ceremony. The Queen gave away the bride. The Princess responded in a clear voice to the questions of the marriage ceremonial.

The Marquis of Lorne looked pale and nervous, and made the responses in a low tone. After the ceremony was over, the Queen kissed the bride heartily. Lorne knelt and kissed the hand of his Sovereign.

The bridal party then swept out of the Chapel, and passed through immense crowds of people, enthusiastically cheering, to Windsor Castle, where the Royal party breakfasted alone.

The rest of the guests attended a grand ball, given in honor of the occasion. As it may interest your lady readers, I may state that after all the grand doings were over, the Princess started from the Castle, attired in a travelling costume of Campbell plaid, and the bridal party took carriages for Claremont, a Royal Palace in Surrey, there to spend the honeymoon.

FRANCE.—It does not appear to be an easy task for the French government to bring order out of the confusion which has been reigning there for months past.

The mob have a great inclination for insurrection so that it is not surprising that they should try their hand at raising barricades again, and taking possession of public buildings. We can hardly yet learn which of the various rumors are correct.

The telegrams present much variety in detail, but the leading features of the rebellion given by the telegrams are alike.

M. Thiers announced in the Assembly on Wednesday, that the Government would not declare war against the insurgents unless instructed to do so by the Assembly.

The Nationals were then holding all the fortifications west of Paris.

Whilst the people were flying from Paris terror stricken, the rebels were preparing for a desperate encounter to recover their lost ground.

A collision took place between the National Guards and the mob, in which five persons were killed and several wounded.

The National Assembly at Versailles received a communication on Sunday from the Mayor of Paris asking that before the horrors of civil war are inaugurated that the Assembly enter into communication with the Mayors, and give them full powers.

The withdrawal of the German troops from France has been entirely stopped. Fifty thousand troops are reported en route from the provinces, to put down the insurrection in Paris.

Chanzy, Lecompte, and Thomas were summarily murdered, Vinoy too has fallen a victim to the revolutionists.

It is said the two first-named were buried in ditches like dogs.

On Thursday Paris was quiet and the Bourse closed. It is rumored that Gen. Ducrot has been shot by his own soldiers.

A disturbance is reported at Lyons where some of the people have proclaimed a commune and raised the red flag.

General Chenette has been commissioned to raise a Volunteer Legion in the west of France, and issued an appeal to the defenders of order, family, and religion, to join the ranks.

Bismarck threatens to re-occupy Paris, and direct the fire of the Forts against the city in case the insurrection is not ended.

Menotti Garibaldi was taking a leading position with the insurgents. It is supposed agents of the Orleansists, and Bonapartists were fomenting the disturbances.

The London "Times" on Friday special despatch from Versailles, says that the Montmartres have stopped a train with prisoners to Versailles.

The released prisoners of the 69th regiment of the line resisted all efforts to induce them to join the insurgents. The officers were at once promoted.

In the National Assembly of the same day the government proposed a loan for the organization of volunteers, which was adopted. Under its terms every department of France is to send to Versailles immediately a battalion of volunteers for support of government.

A despatch from Paris says: The reaction in favor of the Empire gains strength hourly, and unless Thiers speedily restores order, the French may endeavor to find their way to Chiselhurst.

The National Assembly has issued a proclamation condemning the criminal attempts of a few madmen to involve France in ruin and dishonor, which are repudiated by the whole country.

Lord Lyons telegraphs to Government he is confident of early restoration of order in Paris. Later despatches state that Paris is quiet. The clubs have resumed their trips, theatres are open, and the railway trains from Paris to Versailles run regularly.

The Paris elections passed off quietly and resulted in an overwhelming communist majority.

The revolutionary authority is completely dominant. The abdication of mayors increases the success of revolution, which, in a few weeks, will spread to all the large towns.

The position of the government in the rural districts is untenable. It is generally thought the government is defunct, and rumor is current that Thiers will be forced to resign and be succeeded by Duc D'Aumale.

Gen. Vinoy urges an immediate attack on Paris. Thiers says that when the government has one hundred thousand troops, in which it can trust, an attack will be made upon Paris.

It is believed that the capital will be removed to Tours.

GERMANY.—The Emperor William opened the German Parliament in person on Tuesday last, reading his speech from the Throne.

Berlin, March 22.—Semi-official provincial correspondence says that Germany will not interfere with affairs in Paris now, but will know how to guard her interests and press the fulfilment of the engagements entered into by France.

Orders have been issued to stop the return home of the French prisoners for the present.

Bismarck has been elevated to the rank of Prince of the German Empire, and Von Moltke, President, with the grand cross of the Order of the Iron Cross.

At the session of the German Parliament on Thursday, Herr Simon was elected President, and Prince Hohenzollern Vice-President, of the Reichstag. American Minister Bancroft has received an ovation from the people of Berlin.

SPAIN.—The Ministerialists have carried three-fourths of the members in the recent election.

Notice.

THE LADIES OF ANNAPOLIS ROYAL In connection with the Baptist denomination and many others, have concluded that the time has come when the friends should "arise and build" a Baptist Meeting House in that ancient town. They have accordingly organized a Sewing Circle with a view to raise funds for this desired object. The Circle is largely attended and vigorously and courageously at work. They bespeak the sympathies and benevolent aid of the Baptist Churches in the Province and of the religious public generally. Surely the old TOWN OF ANNAPOLIS, the former Capital of Nova Scotia, hitherto without a Baptist Church or place of worship, has special claims upon the generous hearted in all parts of the land. Donations in cash or contributions to the contemplated Bazar to take place in July next may be forwarded to Mrs. A. W. Corbet, Mrs. F. Snow, Mr. Jno. Brittain, or the Subscriber. March 22. ISA. WALLACE, Lower Granville.

GATES' LIFE OF MAN BITTERS, FROM THE

Roots and Plants of Nova Scotia, FORMERLY MANUFACTURED BY MRS. GATES, OF WILMOT,

WHO was pronounced incurable of Liver Complaint and Dropsy by many skillful physicians; when procuring several receipts from an eminent French physician, she was entirely cured; and afterwards cured hundreds of cases for which at first there seemed to be no hope. We offer these remedies to the public through the persuasion of those who at present consider that they are indebted to them for the preservation of their lives. Many certificates can be given for the cure of the following diseases: Dropsy, in its worst form, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Swelling of the Limbs and Face, Asthma, of whatever kind; Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Sick Headache, Diseases of the Blood, Female Diseases, Running Sores, Rheumatism, Erysipelas. These Bitters are taken in connection with a Syrup to regulate the bowels and purify the blood. We also prepare a LINIMENT and an OINTMENT for external application when required. The following certificates describe a few of the astonishing cures which have been made by the use of these remedies:

CALEB GATES & Co. Gentlemen:—I take this opportunity of testifying to the value of your Invigorating Syrup. My daughter a girl of twelve years of age was afflicted during the past winter with loss of appetite, followed by general debility and weakness of the Stomach to the extent that she could not retain food upon the stomach the consequences of which was that she became a mere skeleton and was fast wasting away while the Doctors could do nothing for her. Mr. John N. Boleman happened to call at my house and seeing the pitiful condition of the child recommended the Syrup we gladly took his advice and immediately procured a bottle which gave great relief, and a second one made an entire cure. WALTER WHITE. Personally appeared before me the subscriber Walter White and made oath to the above certificate. J. N. BOLEMAN, J. P. Lakeville Kings Co., N. S., June 14th, A. D., 1870. A large number of certificates, similar to the above, have been received and will be published at times for the information of the afflicted and the people generally. GENERAL AGENT, JOHN K. BENT, 124 Granville Street, Halifax. Jan. 4.

To Clergymen and Church Wardens of the Church of England, in Nova Scotia. INFORMATION WANTED respecting the death or burial of JOHN T. LAW, or his wife, whose maiden name was Ratchford, probably about the year 1790. Said John T. Law had been an officer in the 8th Regiment, but retired on half pay. Or of the christening of ELSIE LAW, daughter of the above, probably between the years 1784 and 1792, and in one of the following places:—Halifax, Parrsboro, Digby, Shelburne, or the township of Douglas. Any parties having the records of churches in either of these places, and able to afford any information in these matters will be well rewarded for so doing. Address.—Box 58, Halifax Post Office. April 22.
