A christian, said in speaking of the church, and on behalf of his brethren, " We have resolved to sustain the cause, il we want for bread." Noble sentiment. "The liberal soul deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand "

The widow of Sarepta proved it, and so may we " As the God of Elijah liveth.' I Kings 17. 8-24.

EPISCOPAL.

GUYSBORO. - We learn from the Church Chronicle that Rev. Mr. Gelling, Episcot al Clergyman, has removed from Guysboro to Bridgewater. The reasons assigned for doing so are the withdrawal of the grant from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, " the want of more trade and business and the loss of several from the congregation by death and removal."

Annapolis. - From the same paper we perceive that a memorial was adopted at a recent meeting at this place remonstrating with the above mentioned Society against the withdrawal of the Aid heretofore rendered to elergymen of this Province, the result of which it is stated would be that "they will be reduced to a living and maintenance, entirely insufficient for their duty and position, or else in very necessity be compelled to vacate their parishes and seek in loreign countries sustenance for them elves and families."

BILLTOWN, CORNWALLIS .- Rev. J. F. Kempton writes Nov. 6. 1871.

P. S -I had the privilege, yesterday, of visiting the haptismal waters once more; and burying with Christ, by baptism, another professed disciple. We hope soon to welcome others among us, who ought, withs out delay, to obey the Master's command : and how to this Divine ordinace.

Taken from one cut in an Emerald by command of Tiberius Cæsar and which was given from the freasury of Constantinople, by the Emperor of the Turks, to Pope Innocent VIII, for the Redemption of his Brother, then a Captive to the Christians.

The following Extract in proof of the Authenticity of the above Portrait is translated from the Latin contemporary Historians of the " News to the Senate of Rome concerning JESUS CHRIST in the days of Tiberius Cæsar the Emperor, as the govenors of sundry provinces under the Senate and people of Rome used to advertise the Senate of such news as chanced in diverse countries.

". There appeared in these our days a man of great vitue named JESUS CHRIST, who is yet alive amongst us, and of the Gentiles is accepted for a Prophet of Tru h, but hi own disciples called bim the Son of God. He raiseth the dead and cureth all manner of diseases, late fellow of Clan College, Cambridge Every A man of stature somewhat tall and comely. with a very reverend countenance, such as the beholders may both love and fear; his hair of the colour of phi bert full ripe, and plain almost down to his ears: but from the ears downward somewhat carled, and more orient of colour, waving on his shoulders. In the midst of his head goeth a scare, or partition of his hair, after the manner of the Nazarites: his friehead, very plain and smooth; his face, without spot or wrinkle, beautified with a comely red: his nose and mouth so formed as noth ing can be reprehended; his beard somewhat thick agreeable in colour to the bair of his head, not of any great length, in the mid-t of an inn cent and mature look; his eyes grey. clear and quick. In reproving, he is terrible: in adm nishing, courteous and fair spoken: pleasant in speach, mixed with gravity. It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. In proportion of body, well shaped and straight; his hands and arms right, and desectable to behold; in speaking, very temperate, modest and wise.
