against the love of gain, and some against the love of ease, each has a besetting sin, that sin which comes so natural to the christian man. Now in a christian church we have many imperfections, and there is great need of forbearance, and those who have had much experience in church matters know there is a great lack of this spirit of forbearance. We feel insulted, and are disposed to stand on our dignity, if we hear any report touching our reputation, or objection raised to our mode of action, or if we feel slighted. Perhaps we have more than a dozen times felt injured. What if we have. Can we not exercise the spirit of forbearance? Are we not in harmony with Divine ferbearance towards ourselves when we are exercising the spirit of forbearance towards others? Perhaps the minister or members do not call on you as often as you desire, or think they ought. Do exercise this spirit and it will greatly relieve you of the trouble.

Because of this want of forbearance dissensions, heart burnings and angry feelings and divided churches have been the results. A minister once wrote me about the divided state of his church, and asked my advice, I wrote him and advised him to visit both parties alike, and treat the opposing side with great forbearance and courtesy, and he would mark better results. Since then I have heard that several of the leading opponents have become reconciled whereas if the minister had insisted on harsh measures he would have lost some valuable helpers.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS' THOMPSON GRAVES,

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Illsley, all of Cornwallis mountain, died July 25th ult., aged about 36 years. She had been suffering several years from complicated disease, and through it all was enabled to trust in Christ. Her hope was, at times, very faint. Still she did hope and believe that through the merits of Christ she should be happy, eternally. She leaves a husband, and many relatives to mourn the loss of her society. The Lord comfort and save them all.

MRS. STUBBERT SWEET,

of Billtown, Cornwallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen North, died of Consumption, aged 26 years. Mrs. Sweet suffered many months from this fatal disease; and she was patient through it all. It was only during the last five or six months of her life, however, that she enjoyed the consolations of the religion of Christ. But though her religious life was so short. it afforded great peace and comfort. Her confidence in God was firm and unwavering, and continued so till the end. Not having obtained hope in Christ till since her illness, she did not unite with the people of God. It was her desire to have done so however, had life been spared and health permitted. Sister Sweet has left a kind husband; and an infant babe, beside a large circle of relatives. Her early and peaceful death is a solemn call to all who knew her.

"Hope looks beyond the bounds of time; When, what we now deplore, Shall rise in full immortal prime; And bloom to fade no more." -Com. by Rev. J. F. Kempton.

A WIDE FIELD OF LABOR.—A Baptist minister, Rev. T. Booker, writes from Drumbo to the Canadian Baptist that he has resigned his position as pastor of Blenheim; Drumbo and Wolverton churches, and adds :-

"My reason for resigning is simply this: the field is too large for me. In the three churches we have two hundred and thirtythree members, and to preach three times and travel seventeen miles every Sabbath, besides the great amount of pastoral work required, is too much for me."

FRENCH BAPTISTS IN ONTARIO. - The Rev. N. Cyr writes to the Canadian Baptist, under date Rutland, Vermont, August II, 1871:

Mr. Editor, - Allow me to call your attention to the interesting French Baptist Church, organized in the town of Stevens, near Lake Huron, through the efforts of some of our brethren who have emigrated from the Province of Quebec, and the visits of Rev. R. B. Desroches, of Detroit. I understand that thirty-one converts have been baptized in that town by Bro. Desroches, and, as several of the inhabitants had been immersed before removing thither, the French Baptist Church already numters over forty mem ers. It is a new country, and these brethren are poor in this world s goods; yet they would willingly contribute as much as do other misionary churches in the Dominion towards supporting a pastor. They have as yet enjoyed only the occasional visits of our good brother of Detroit, and it seems very important that they should have a shepherd, who

The good work is progressing in New England, and the pastors who attempt to preach the Gospel to the French Catholics are encouraged. My duties are to aid them, and I am most happy in so doing.

A STARTLING FACT .- When the subject of Sabbath Observance was under consideration in the Presbyterian Synod at St. John, a member from Halifax stated that 25 shops were open in Lower Water Street on a previous Sabbath evening. The statement was hardly credible. Within the last two months four gentleman connected with the city Mission, undertook to make a careful note of the places they found open for buying and selling on the Lord's Day. The result was that they counted One Hundred and Eighty Two open shope! In a majority of these Liquor is sold. One of the shops that is open every Lord's Day is kept by an Alderman! Here are facts that cannot but attract the attention of the christian community.—1b.

Miles, assisted by a few of his adult class. Although the evening was very rainy, a large and respectable audience was present who evinced their pleasure in, and proved their appreciation of the exercises, by the attention and applause given. We were pleased with the good order maintained and the fine musical talent exhibited by the children. We could not fail to see that the teacher must have labored during the term with great tact and energy; to enable the pupils to display so much proficiency in the science of music.

The spirit of the songs was such as would tend to elevate and instruct the morals both of the listener and the performer. The exercises consisted of solos, duetts and choruses.

The whole performance was a brilliant ONE PRESENT.
