

For the Christian Messenger.

SUNNYSIDE AT CHARLOTTE-TOWN.

Dear Brother,— We have our Bible Class here, of some twenty members, more or less. This day week I perceived signs of unusual bustle about the house. Our Bible Class had organized a surprise party; and in the evening it came off. There were some twenty uninvited guests, or more; consisting of the members of the Bible Class, and certain others who chose to associate themselves with them, the party being, like the class made up of elder people, as well as younger ones. They brought with them materials for an extemporized feast, leaving behind ample materials for the benefit of our little household, adding a handsome donation in cash, and accompanying the whole with expressions of the kindly feeling which had prompted the kindly demonstration, such was our surprise-party. Our friends here are in the habit of doing kind things for their minister and his household; but they are modest, and do not care to have these matters blazoned abroad. Our surprise-party, however, did really take us by surprise; and we would return the surprise, if surprise it be, by this acknowledgment of it in your columns. Many thanks to our friends who favoured us as above. May we and they meet at last to praise and give thanks in the land in which surprising grace, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, ripens into surprising and endless glory!

Yours, (on behalf of self and family.)

J. DAVIS.

Religious Intelligence.

The aggregate age of five Baptist missionaries in the Highlands of Scotland is 420 years; and those five preachers have been engaged in the mission field during a total of 227 years, or over forty five years each, and they are now doing a great deal of itinerant work.

CHATHAM.—On the 10th inst., the ordinance of baptism was administered by pastor J. L. Campbell of Chatham, to two interesting candidates, and two others were baptized a short time previously.

TORONTO.—Since our last item in regard to Baptist progress in Toronto, the ordinance of baptism has been administered to two candidates by the pastor of the Alexander St. Church. There are some half-a-dozen applicants for baptism and membership in Bond St.

BOSTON, MASS.—The Watchman and Reflector gives some account of the state of religion in this city and neighbourhood as follows:—We cannot report, we are sorry to say, any very marked manifestations of revival and religious interest in our churches generally. The more notable exceptions are Harvard Street and Ruggles Street, where pastors House and Seymour continue to be much encouraged by increased attendance on the preaching of the Word, and by cases of occasional conversion. Pastor Cook, of the Bethel, like his predecessor, is ever hopeful and has reason to be. Pastors Fulton, Garner and Lorimer have been delivering special sermons and lectures to large and appreciative congregations. We much regret the prospect of losing from our city pastor so able and good a minister as our excellent brother Reeves, of Bowdoin Square church. The old First church are cheered, as well they may be, under the joint ministry of Dr. Neale and their already loved young pastor, Beckley.

At East Boston our Zion as never before, has lengthened her cords and strengthened her stakes, under the lead of one of our best men, Rev. Dr. Cheney. Their enlarged, spacious and beautiful sanctuary is thronged with listening hearers of the Word of salvation.

What all these and all our churches, as well as those in other cities and towns around us, most need, is a pervasive and permanent revival of religion. For this blessing it is meet all Christian hearts should be uplifted at this closing season of the year 1871.

THE TRAFFIC IN DEGREES.—We have been informed by a clergyman of the Church of England that there is a large sale of Masters of Arts degrees to half educated clergymen in that Church. Hoods are given exactly like those of Oxford or Cambridge, so that the purchaser passes himself off to the public as an Oxford or Cambridge man. With Nonconformists the title of Doctor is more popular, and consequently D.D.'s, L.L.D.'s and Ph.D.'s find a ready market among them. We ourselves have received a further communication from our correspondent evidently offering to get the title on lower terms than he had stated before.—Weekly Review.

The lady who gave £20,000 to found Stockwell Orphanage for boys has offered Mr. Spurgeon a like sum with which to found an orphanage for girls.

The friends of Baboo Keshub Chunder Sen in England have made him a present of a handsome sweet-toned organ for his church in Calcutta, to be opened at the great Lomey Festival in January, 1872, when the different representatives of this religious movement in India meet at Calcutta from various parts of that great empire. Mr. Sen is aiming to introduce English sacred music and hymns among the natives, and the organ he thinks will facilitate this important work.

Dr. Patterson, missionary bishop of the Melanesian or South-West Pacific Isles, and Mr. Aitkin, one of his brother missionaries, have been massacred at the South Sea Island of Santa Cruz by a native. The murderer was instigated by feelings of revenge for the kidnapping atrocities committed by the Coolie traders from Hong Kong—atrocities for which not only, of course, were they in no wise responsible, but against which they had always protested, and even had exerted themselves to prevent. The late bishop was the eldest son of the late Mr. Justice Patterson and cousin of the Attorney-General of England.

A Letter from Queen Victoria.—We learn by the despatch on Saturday that the Friday afternoon London papers contained a letter from Queen Victoria, in which she says that she desires to express her deep sense of the touching sympathy exhibited for her family by the whole nation during the illness of her dear son. The universal feeling shown by her people during the painful and terrible days of the Prince's illness, their sympathy with herself and her beloved daughter the Princess of Wales, and the general joy manifested at the improvement in the health of the Prince, have all made a deep and ineffable impression upon her heart. These manifestations of the people are nothing new to her, for she met the same sympathy ten years ago, when a similar illness removed the mainstay of her life, the best, wisest and kindest husband that ever lived. Her Majesty says also that she wishes to express the heartfelt gratitude of the Princess of Wales, and concludes her letter with the hope that her faithful subjects will continue to pray for the complete recovery of the Prince.
