BE SURE YOU "GET THE BEST." THE SERVICE OF SONG. FOR BAPTIST CHURCHES.

BY S. L. CALDWELL & A. J. GORDON,

Hymn and Tune edition, square octavo, cloth, $2. Hymn edition, 16mo, cheap, $1.25.

First supplied to Churches for introduction furnished at $1.60 and $1.00. The same in extra styles of binding, with prices to correspond.

This work is intended specially, as its title indicates, for Public Worship in the House of the Lord, not for Sabbath Schools, or for the ordinary purposes of Conference Meeting.

It contains 1069 Hymns and 38 Doxologies, in every variety of metre with the authors' names attached to each (so far as known) and the date of its first publication. Also a choice selection of Scripture and chants for chanting.

The MUSIC for CONGREGATIONAL SINGING is admirably adapted to the object.

The numbering of the Hymns of the different editions correspond, a very important consideration. There are SIX INDEXES, full, clear, and well arranged.

The price, considering the character of the work, and its superior mechanical execution, is lower than any other in the market.

The object has been to provide an ample collection of the choicest HYMNS in the language, united to the very best music extant for CONGREGATIONAL SINGING, and, in order to avoid a thick, heavy cumbersome volume, the Publishers have aimed to obtain clear distinct type, a neat open attractive page, the whole compact, light as possible, and every way convenient for use, and it will be seen that these several all important points have been fully secured in "THE SERVICE OF SONG."

The work is receiving the warmest and most unqualified commendation of Pastors, churches and all who take suitable pains to examine (with candid, unprejudiced minds) and thereby learn its superior merits, and many attractive peculiarities.

A large number of letters and reviews, (unsolicited) from leading ministers and others, strongly commending the work have been received.

Among the churches that have already adopted the work, may be named:

The First Baptist church, (Dr. Anderson's,) New York; First Baptist church, Brighton; First Baptist church, Chelsea; First Baptist church, Providence; Second Baptist church, Hopkinton; Second Baptist church, Cleveland, O.; together with the following churches: Old Cambridge; Clarendon St., Boston; Watertown; Pawtucket; West Newton; Newton Centre; Lake Village; Millbury; Hyde Park; Calvary church, Westley; Kalamazoo, Mich; Southbridge; West Amesbury; Dearborn St.; Roxbury; Natick; University Place, Chicago.

Also the chapels connected with the following institution: College at Kalamazoo, Mich.; Rochester Theological Seminary; Newton Theological Institution; Acadia College, N. S.; Chicago Theological Seminary, Ill.; Worcester Academy.

The Publishers have no paid agents in the field to visit and importune the churches, no trumpeters to sound the praises of their book in the way of paid-for newspaper puff, nor can they afford to pay for several column advertisements in the various denominational papers. Their exhortation to all desirous of procuring a new book therefore is "BE NOT DECEIVED." READ EXAMINE, COMPARE, and BE SURE YOU "GET THE BEST."

THE PUBLICATION OF THE PSALMIST, A COLLECTION OF HYMNS.

Of unexampled popularity, by DR. STOW and SMITH, and now in general use throughout the United States and the British Provinces, will be continued, as heretofore.

IMPORTANT INVENTION.

Combination of Reeds and Pipes.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO., have the satisfaction of announcing the successful combination of reeds and pipes, so long attempted by organ-makers in vain, but which is now effected by the inventions of Mr. CARL FOGELBERG, a Swedish organ-builder, now resident in the United States.

This invention they offer in the MASON & HAMLIN REED AND PIPE CABINET ORGAN.

The introduction of pipes in the Cabinet Organ, by which are added to the rich, vivacious tones of reeds the more liquid and pure, though passionless, tones of the pipe, has long been deemed an object so important that experiments have been unceasing for its attainment.

There are few Organ-makers who have not given much time and attention to the matter, though heretofore without success. It is true that certain attachments have been presented as "pipes and reeds," but these have in no case been real pipes, but only tubes of tin or other material, not capable of producing any tones themselves, but only supposed to modify somewhat the tones of the reeds.

The difficulty, heretofore found insurmountable, arises from the fact that the pitch of pipes and reeds is differently affected by changes of temperature. Pipes are quite sensitive to such changes, and reeds much less so; while the change is in different directions. As the atmosphere becomes warmer the pitch of pipes becomes sensibly higher, while that of reeds, though affected very little, is yet a trifle lower. Thus, though pipes and reeds be tuned exactly together, a few hours may produce sufficient change in the temperature to throw them so much apart that they cannot be used together. It is evident that until this difficulty was overcome it was impracticable to combine reeds and pipes.

Mr. Fogelberg's invention includes the modification of the form of the pipe, and the employment of a valve or cover extending over all the pipes and regulating one of the openings to each, so that by a single movement the pitch of all can be raised or lowered sufficiently to compensate for atmospheric changes. When a change of temperature has thrown the pipes out of tune with the reeds, the simple turning of a screw is sufficient to raise or lower the pitch of the pipes to the exact pitch of the reeds.

STYLe No. 71. REED AND PIPE CABINET ORGAN, RESONANT, FIVE OCTAVE, DOUBLE REED, with one Set of WOOD PIPES from Middle C up, at eight feet pitch (FOGELBERG'S PATENT), SIX STOPS. 1. FLUTE D'AMOUR (WOOD PIPES); 2. VIOLA; 3. DIAPASON; 4. MELLODIA; 5. FLUTE; 6. TREMBULANT. 20,000 Agents Wanted to canvass for THE MOST INTERESTING RELIC AND CURIOSITY IN THE CHRISTIAN WORLD EVER DISCOVERED.

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED, Price $2.50 A finely-executed Engraving, THE ONLY TRUE LIKENESS OF OUR SAVIOUR.

Taken from one cut in an Emerald by command of Tiberius Caesar and which was given from the Treasury of Constantinople, by the Emperor of the Turks, to Pope Innocent VIII, for the Redemption of his Brother, then a Captive to the Christians.

The following Extract, in proof of the Authenticity of the above Portrait, is translated from the Latin contemporary historians of the period.

"News to the Senate of Rome concerning JESUS CHRIST in the days of Tiberius Caesar the Emperor, as the governors of sundry provinces under the Senate and people of Rome used to advertise the Senate of such news as chanced in diverse countries.

"Publius Lentulus, being at that time president in Judaea, wrote an epistle to the Senate and people of Rome, the words whereof were these:—

"There appeared in these our days a man of great virtue, named JESUS CHRIST, who is yet alive amongst us, and of the Gentiles is accepted for a Prophet of Truth, but his own disciples called him the Son of God. He raiseth the dead and curth all manner of diseases. A man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a very reverend countenance, such as the beholders may both love and fear; his hair of the colour of phibert full ripe, and plain almost down to his ears; but from the ears downward somewhat curled, and more orient of colour, waving on his shoulders. In the midst of his head guth a wave, or partition of his hair, after the manner of the Nazarites; his forehead, very plain and smooth; his face, without spot or wrinkle, beautified with a comely red; his nose and mouth so formed as nothing can be rephended; his beard somewhat thick agreeable in colour to the hair of his head, not of any great length, in the midst of an inch cent and mature look; his eyes grey, clear and quick. In reproving, he is terrible in admonishing, courteous and fair-spoken; present in speech, mixed with gravity. It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. In proportion of body, well-shaped and straight; his hands and arms right, and disectable to behold; in speaking, very temperate, modest and wise. A man for singular beauty surpassing the children of men."

Agents are making from $5 to $50 per day. Send $2.50 for sample copy and Terms. Address C. B. THOMPSON, Bridgewater, Canada. Oct 18
