afternoon of the day to examine the candidate in regard to bis Christian experience, doctrinal views, and general fitness for the position. The examination passed off creditably to the candidate and satisfactorily to the members of the council, and and it was voted to hold the ordination services in the evening.

A large audience assembled in the church at half-past seven to witness and take part in the public services of ordination. The services, which were conducted by Rev. Dr. Bowers, opened with an organ voluntary, followed by the anthem, "O how lovely is Zion," and the chaunt, " I have set watchman upon thy walls," finely performed by a chorus choir. Rev. J. T Burhoe of Marlboro read a selection of scripture from the second chapter of the second epistle to Timothy, and Rev C. D. R. Meacham of Coldbrook offered the introductory prayer, which was followed by the hymn;

We bid thee welcome in the name Of Jesus, our exalted Head."

Rev. D. C. Cheney, D. D., of East Boston, preached the sermon, which was a clear and forcible presentation of the leading truths of the New Testament and was listened to with close and earnest attention by the audience . The text was taken from Luke iv. 24. "Beginning at Jerusalem."

At the close of the address the ordaining prayer was offered by Rev Hemon Lincoln, D. D. of the Newton theological seminary while the clergymen present placed their hands upon the head of the candidate who was kneeling before the pulpit.

The hand of fellowship was extended by Rev. H. K. Pervear of the city. Mr. Pervear addressed the candidate briefly in behalf of the council, and welcomed him cordially to his new field of labor. He alluded to the fact that at the present time he is the only Baptist minister who is settled in the city. The act of giving the hand of fellowship is symbolical, and is an old practice originatingating among the early Christians. It is typical of good feeling and of welcome to the christian ministry with its enjoyment, cares, labors and trials.

Rev. Dr. Bowers delivered the charge to the candidate, and the venerable clergyman, drawing from the rich experience of fifty years in the Christian ministry, spoke eloquent words of eaution and instruction to the young man before him, just entering upon his life work. He charged him to be honest, generous, cheerful, honorable, faithful and holy, and to avoid every habit calculated to give offence, and not to strive for applause or seek calls from other and richer churches.

The address to the church was delivered by Rev. A. D. Potter of Springfield. He charged them to attend regularly the meetings for worship, to work in the same field that he does by cordially welcoming people to the church, and endeavoring to draw sinners to repentance, to pray for him, and above all, to render him help by living up to their religion.

The hymn, " And now the solemn deed is done," was then sung by the congregation followed by the anthem, "Saviour, breathe an evening blessing." The benediction was pronounced by the pastor.

"CHURCH,-OPPOSITION !"

Mr. Editor .-

The "Anti" papers claim, and Government organs grant, that Mr. Church is an Opposition-man. But, victory to the victorious.

In his nomination-speech, Mr. Church pledged himself to support Sir John A's Government whenever he could honestly call its measures good; and C. E. Church is a man whose words and actions agree. Lunenburg County decided for " Church" and State," electing, not a MacDonald-Government man, not an opposition-manbut a good-government man, -than whom no "Dominion Member" can, well and wisely, be a stronger adherent of either Government or Opposition. Let neither party claim an honest " Independent."

N. B .- Mr. Owen " protested."

Yours truly,

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Letters from Dr. Livingstone addressed to several of the leading nobility are now appearing in the London papers. A telegram on Saturday last states that Earl Granville had forwarded to Mr. Stanley, the Dr. Livingstone discoverer, a letter from the Queen, conveying her thanks for the services rendered the British nation in finding Dr. Livingstone. Accompanying the letter was a handsome snuff-box set in brillians. In the letter the Queen thanks Mr Stanley for "relieving her from the anxiety which, in common with her subjects, Her Majesty, had felt in regard to the fate of that distinguished traveller."

GATES' LIFE OF MAN BITTERS,

Wilmot, Port George, March 20th 1871

MESSRS. C. GATES & Co Gentlemen .- I have much pleasure in sending you this testimony for the encouragement of yourselves and for the benefit of suffering

In April of 1868 my wife was most distressingly afflicted with a severe pain through her chest, side, and both shoulders. We endeavoured to obtain medicine to give ease but were never able to get any that gave relief until I got some of your Life of man Bitters and No 1 Syrup which not only gave relief but effected a perfect cure. Du ing the time my wife was taking your medecine we took a little child whose mether had just died with consumption. When the little one was left motherless it was 12 months old and weighed only 15 lbs., being but little short of a living skeleton. We gave it 1 bettle of your Bitters and 2 bettles of your No. 1 Syrup which acted like a charm, quieting its nerves and giving health and vigor to its whole system. We consider it now a healthy child, and has been so with but one exception. When it was taken with cholera apparently in its worst form passing little else than blood, we got one half bottle of your Certain Check which made a complete cure, and the child is new healthy. Also my daughter was very much afflicted with sick headache and female weakness, which had she not got relief must have terminated in consumption. A few bottles of your No. 2 Bitters and No. 1 Syrup effected a complete cure. WILLIAM H. BROWN.
