TEE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR- BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES, 1873. SHIP.

Great disappointment has been felt in political circles, and by the community generally since the reception of the following despatch, on Wednesday last, from Hon. Dr. Tupper a Ottawa:

"I regret to say that after Judge Johnston had taken his passage, his physician remonstrated so strongly that he felt obliged to decline the Governorship. A Governor will be appointed immediately."

Much regret has been expressed at this conclusion of Judge Johnston to decline the Governorship. That appointment was regarded by all parties as eminently judicious and satisfactory, but that having failed it was not so easy to find another person who would in all respects be as acceptable.

Conjecture was busy through the remainder of the week as to who would receive the appointment. The names of several of our more promi nent men were suggested-some of whom it appears were unwilling to accept the honor. The Hon. Adams G Archibald, late governor of Manitoba, had been named for Judge in Equity. Technical objections were however urged by some parties against this appointment. Such objections do not lie against Mr. Archibald being made Lieutenant Governor. That course is therefore concluded upon, and Mr. Archibald is to be appointed to the vacant office. This appointment will we presume be generally acceptable to the people of the province.

METHODIST.—The Wesleyan Conference was sitting in Fredericton, N. B. last week. The finances generally are reported to be in a very prosperou condition. Seventeen young men successfully passed the usual examination and are received on probation, five Ministers become supernumeraries, and six supernumeraries return to the active work of the Ministry this year. The Rev. Dr. R ce, President of the Canadian Conference and Representative to this Conference arrived on Saturday.

Rev. A. W. Nicholson is appointed editor of the Wesleyan and Book Steward, in place of Dr. Pickard, who has removed to Sackville, and is to proceed as a delegate to England. The following are the city appointments: Halifax, North, (Brunswick Street)-John Lachern; Kaye Street, Robert McArthur; Charles Street, Jas. Strothard; Ingham Sutcliffe, Edmund Botterell, Supernumeraries. Halifax, South, (Grafton Street), John Read; Pope, (A) Supernumerary.

The CAMP-MEETING AT BERWICK is to commence this day. Excursion tickets are given from all stations to persons wishing to attend this out of door protracted meeting. Whether the spiritual benefits will be equal to the physical will remain for each one present to determine for himself after it is all over.

It is not o'ten that we have a new book, published in this province, to notice but we received one last week from the hands of the author, entitled "The History of Queens County N. S." by James F. Moore, Esq. It contains upwards of 250 pages and is full of most interesting incidents concerning the places and people belonging to the county.

GETTING TO THE ASSOCIATION AT PUGWASH.

To the Editor of the Christian Messenger

WENTWORTH, June 17, 1873. Sir,—In order to accomm date persons wishing to attend the Biptist Association at Pugwash, I have decided to run a line or covered coa thes daily, from "Wentwort Station, ' to Pugwash, for one week; commencing on Friday, July 11th, -or Thursdry, if considered distrable Leive " Wentwith Stat on " immediately after the ar wal of Express train from Halifax, and r ve at Pugwash about 4 o'clock, P. M co re-coaches will also leave Pugwash, about noon each day, and arrive at Wentworth Station in time for the Express trains going to Halifax, Truro, &c.

This is much the best route, saving milway lare, or delay at stations waiting for thee or four hours for Western train with mails. Besides the route is through an old settled country with good roads

Passengers taking my line from Went worth save their tare on the cars to Thomp son's station, and get to Pugwash about 4 o'c ock, P. M.

Yours &t.,

AMOS PURDY. P S .-- I also run an Expre-s passenger and freight line of coac ies daily from "Wentworth Station" to Wallace; and also a line of coaches to Tatamagouche; from Wentworth going to Tatamagouche, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, returning Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

HORTON ACADEMY, inc'uding Male and Female Departments, will open on Thursday the 14th of August

FATAL ACCIDENT. - On Wednesday after noon a melancholy accident occurred in the The Nova Scotia Eastern Association establishment of Messrs. Stairs, Son and Morrow A heavy keg of nails was to be lowered from the third story to the ground flor, by a winch which was on the second flood One of the men employed in the warehouse arranged the gear and started down stairs to work the winch. While he was on his way, Mr George McDonald, a clerk in the office of the firm, who happened to be in the store, undertook to lower the keg by the winch. In some manner he lost control of it, and the keg fell to the lower floor. The handle of the winch re volved with great velocity, and striking Mr. McDonald on the back of the head smashed his skull and threw him bleeding and insensible to the floor. Doctors were summoned and he was removed to his home as quickly as possible. He died about four hours after the accident.

Deceased was a promising young man in his 21st year, the eldest son of Me. E. M. McDonald, Collector of Customs, and was universally esteemed by those who knew
