I applied to for, your medicines, and by taking them for two months, the swelling all left me, and I have not seen any sympt ms of the disease since. My son had at o been affloted with liver complaint and general debility. I had advice and medicine from one of our most eminent physicians; and he grew worse, so much so that I almost despaired of him getting better.
I applied to you for your valuable medicine,

NUTRITIOUS CONDINENT FOR

Horses and Cattle. All the principal prize cattle at the Royal Agricu tural Shows, held at the Agricultural tiall, Islington, London, 'X nas, '68, '69 '70 and '71, were ted on the North B itish Cattle

Food Co.'s Nutritious Condiment. THE NUTRITIOUS CONDIMENT has been used by the leading breeders, proprietors of racing establishments, and feeders of cattle and horses in England and Scotland for ten years, with great succe-s. The largest contract rs. omnibue proprietors, horse car companie, ai d owners of horses in the mincipal cities of Europe, also teed with it. The success attending its introduction in Canada was greatly in xcess of the most sanguine anticipations of consigned to Montreal I October '72 which was considered to be sufficient to lust one year, was exhausted in three months.

Six hundred of the leading Veterinary Sur geous, Horse Owners, Contractors Farmers Express Companies and Lumber Dealers C nada testify to its uti ity as an economical, health giving food, for Horses and Cattle.

*A Condiment is generally considered to be a seasorer of feed. The Nutritious Condim nt is, however, a great deal more than a seasoner. Although it will sea-on an I r.nder palatable any description of coarse provender. such as ch ff chopped hay, &c., it is in itse.fa sy am of feeding which, if adhered to, will effect a saving of twenty per cent. in the cost or tee ing, and the animals will be in a great deal better conditi n that when fed upon the
