The Shah of Persia went to the Jardin des Plantes, and was very much pleased with what he saw there, and with the courtesy of the directors; so much so, indeed, that he made notes of the names of the men of science, with the view of "remembering" them in the sense in which people who hope to get something, ask to be "remembered."

A little boy in Springfield, after his customary evening prayer, a night or two ago continued, "and bless Mamma and Jenny, and Uncle Benny," adding after a moment's pause the explanatory remark, "his name is Hopkins."

A WELL DESERVED SNUB—It appears from a telegram referred to in the Bombay Gazette of August 1 that the Sultan of Zanzibar, who had contemplated a visit to this country, has been informed by the Home authorities that it is not convenient to receive him at present.

The icelanders are beginning to emigrate quite extensively to the United States. They are said to resemble the Scotch in appearance, and are a bright, clean and healthy-looking class of people.

Agents at Halifax—Brown, Bros & Co; John K. Bent. Manufactured by C. GATES & CO., Middleton, Annapolis Co., N. S. Lower Granville April 1873.

MY DEAR FRIENDS—I have always, until of late, been a bitter enemy to all patent or occult preparations, in the shape of medicines for the sick. But in consequence of an unlucky fall from the deck of a schooner bound to Boston, down into the cabin, by which, displacing two of the short ribs on the right side, the liver was so seriously injured, that for twenty-four hours death was expected every moment. In a few days a blot was discovered in the ankles, pervading in a short time the whole body. Used every medicine that the medical art could devise, not excepting a thorough course of mercury, in order that the liver might be brought once more to perform its proper functions, but did not succeed until I had taken a jug full of your Life of Man Bitters, which you kindly sent me: after I had taken a few draughts I began to improve.

I am not a drunkard, but was always fond of bitters, most particularly when prepared with good brandy; this induced me, although an unbeliever, to partake of liberal draughts, in the morning 11 o'clock, and at 4 P. M., of your Bitters, and before I thought, was cured of your cure, so far as was possible.

I am truly surprised that such a valuable, and, at the same time, safe compound, should not meet with a liberal patronage that it, in my opinion, so justly merits.

I am, yours, most respectfully, WILLIAM KENNEDY, M. D.

PRICE. Bitters $1 per bottle; Syrup 50 cents per bottle; Linctum 25 cents per bottle and the ointment 25 cents per box. Address: CALEB GATES & CO., Farmington, Wilmot, Annapolis Co.
