News of the Week.

A CLERICAL SWINDLER.—The Rev. John Hutchinson is a name pretty well known to many of our readers. It appears that he was arrested in Jersey city a few days ago and taken to Boston, to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. The Boston Herald says that he was deposed some years ago from the ministry of two churches in Nova Scotia, one in River John, and the other in Bridgewater. One of his swindles was to buy a lot of horses in Pictou and vicinity, for which he gave checks upon the bank there, and when the holders went for their money they found he had no funds to his credit. He then ran away, but subsequently returning was arrested, and being bailed, again skedaddled, leaving his sureties in the lurch. While he was living in Roxbury he advertised to furnish first class Nova Scotia girls for families desiring servants. In this scheme he is reported to have realised a handsome amount, receiving $25 from each of about fifty persons to defray the expenses of the domestics, who never came. While sojourning in New York, soliciting aid for his church in Nova Scotia, he bought on credit a fine cabinet organ, from the agent of the Smith Organ Company, and the instrument was delivered to his charge, and stored in the office of a friend till it could be sent on the steamer. But it was missed one day and the friend found it had not gone to the boat, but to an auction room on Tremont street where it was to be disposed of. The auctioneers and also the Smith Company were informed and the swindle was exposed. He at one time managed to ingratiate himself into the confidence and family of Rev. Mr. Williams, pastor of a church on Harrison avenue, and while there gave several parties, ordering refreshments and delicacies from Copland's and other places, which he had charged to his host without authority. He is the man who last year got up a grand choral service in Music Hall, where he had the assistance of the Handel and Hayden Society and other talent. When he first came to Boston he brought letters from respectable people in Nova Scotia, by which he worked himself into good society everywhere. A complete history of his frauds and attempts at fraud, would make a goodly sized volume.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.—The annual meeting of the managers and patrons of this institution was held on Thursday evening at the Quinpool Road, and there was a large attendance of visitors. The party were shown through the several workshops, and afforded an opportunity of inspecting the steam engine and other appliances recently introduced into the institution. The inspection over, the visitors assembled in one of the large rooms of the main building, when the chair was taken by John S. Maclean, Esq., and after some interesting explanations, the annual report of the institution was read by the Rev. Geo. W. Hill, and unanimously adopted. The following gentlemen were appointed the Committee of Management for the current year:—Rev. G. M. Grant, Rev. G. W. Hill, J. S. Maclean, P. O. Hill, W. S. Sterling, W. H. Neal, G. D. Meynell, C. H. M. Black, J. S. Belcher, M. H. Richey, Jas. Thompson, Samuel Brockfield, T. A. Brown, S. A. White, Esqs., and Senator Northrup.

During the evening the boys sang some hymns in good style, and the proceedings throughout were of a highly interesting character. A vote of thanks was awarded the managing committee of last year, including the secretary, J. S. Belcher, Esq. The opening devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. McGregor, and at the close the Rev. Mr. Reid pronounced the benediction.

NOT A SUICIDE.—In the case of the death of Adolphus Fletcher noticed in our last, the further testimony being given and the result of the analysis of the stomach, the jury brought in the following verdict:—"That Adolphus Fletcher came to his death from an overdose of chloral hydrate, and the jury believe that it was taken to produce sleep, and without any suicidal intention."

The Local Legislature has been summoned to meet on the 27th inst. Yesterday was Nomination Day. There was some talk of another candidate for Halifax County besides Capt. Taylor, but we had not heard of any other nomination when we went to press.

FOUND DROWNED.—A correspondent of the Antigonish "Casket" writes that eight dead bodies were washed ashore at Cape Canso a few days ago, supposed to be those of the crew of the brig "Florence," from Halifax bound to Cow Bay, and lost with all on board about a week ago near Canso.

Hon. Dr. Parker arrived in the Nestorian from England, on Sunday morning, after a very boisterous passage.

DARTMOUTH was last week under a state of some excitement arising from an outrageous attempt to abduct a respectable young woman from where she is living, on Thursday evening last. The gentleman with whose family she resides on going into the front garden about 7 o'clock, found her torn apron at the gate, and immediately suspected some mischief. He came to town and sought aid for making a search. Before returning he learned that the young woman had in the mean time come to the shop of Mr. F. Hido for protection, but before she could tell what was the matter fainted away. She states that on hearing some one call her name, she went to the front door, and then to the gate, supposing it to have been some of the neighbours. Seeing no one she turned to go in, but on doing so, was seized from behind, and a cloth saturated as she supposed with chloroform, was thrown over her head. She knew nothing more until she came to a state of consciousness, heard the noise of water at the sea shore, and found herself wrapped in a piece of carpet, her hands tied, and being carried by two men. As they approached the water she heard them speak of a boat and struggled to get free. One of the men drew a knife and threatened to kill her, and give her a cold bath if she made any noise. In carrying her one man stumbled and fell down a bank, which brought forth curses from the other man. The young woman then struggled, and getting her hands loosed, escaped from the other man, and ran off with all her might and continued till she came to Mr. Hido's shop, about a mile distant. The men started at first to catch her, but as she called out "Murder," "Help," they deemed it prudent to give up the chase. She received but slight injury, some bruises by being thrown down, and some few scratches. No clue has yet been discovered as to who the soundrels were, that entered upon this villainous proceeding. It appears that her father and stepmother have wished her to come home to live, but that she refuses to do so. Her father, Mr. J. K. Mathews, publishes a letter in one of the Saturday evening papers stating, "that she left her home about two years ago through disagreeing with her sisters, and not from ill-treatment from her step-mother, as stated, who at the time of her leaving was very sick, and had been so for five weeks. I may add, 'hesays,' she left home without our knowledge or wish. Since then, I have ordered to send her to boarding school, and educate her for a teacher. But as she has declined to leave her situation, I have thought it best to let her remain there, though making her fully understand that her home was always open if she wished to come. With regard to the abduction I need not say, it is my earnest wish to have the affair thoroughly investigated and the cowardly soundrels punished as they deserve."

GET THE SERVICE OF SONG. Those seeking a new HYMN and TUNE BOOK FOR CHURCH SERVICE, and who desire to "GET THE BEST," should not fail to examine with care THE SERVICE OF SONG. This work, it is claimed, contains the best, the sweetest, most elevated Scriptural Collection of HYMNS extant. It has the best and every way most available MUSIC for CONGREGATIONAL SINGING, the adaptation of the Hymns and Music is the most perfect, the whole arrangement is the most thoroughly systematic; the numbering of the HYMNS of the different editions (unlike other similar works) ALL CORRESPOND; the several Indexes are the fullest and most complete; the size and weight of the book the most convenient for use; the type the neatest and most distinct. All these excellencies, combined, with the superior paper and binding, make it in every respect, the most perfect and attractive book for public worship in the market; while the PRICE is lower than most, and is as low as the lowest. It has been introduced into a large number of our best churches in different parts of the country, and has received the most unqualified commendation of the press, of musical men, of ministers and churches, etc. With no effort to detract from other recent works, by attempting to point out their defects, the Publishers simply desire, and would respectfully urge, a thorough and candid examination of the "Service of Song," confident that such an examination cannot fail to convince every fair unprejudiced mind of its superior merits. The Collection contains 1000 HYMNS, and 301 TUNES, 30 DOXOLOGIES, and a choice collection of CHANTS, with Selections of SCRIPTURE for Chanting. PRICE—Cheap Edition of the Hymns alone, 6s. cloth, Archaic, 7s. 6s. Deep Edition of Hymns alone, 13s. 6s.
