FIRE AT THE INTERNATIONAL HOTEL.—On Sunday morning last about 8 o'clock a fire was discovered at the back of the kitchen flue in the new portion of the International Hotel.

It was most marvellous that the other buildings around were not also burned down as they caught several times, but were extinguished.

It appears that the burnt portion of the building had nearly a hundred persons sleeping in it, so that if the fire had occurred in the night there must inevitably have been considerable loss of life.
