too that you can deal with topics that otherwise would not be allowed. Ministers often feel that they cannot preach what they ought to preach. Yet you can discuss any topic if you only love men enough. 'Speaking the truth in love,' the Apostle Paul was able to say. 'I have not shunned to declare unto you the whole counsel of God.' and, 'I have kept back nothing that was profitable for you.'

IN MEMORIAM.

Another of the redeemed family has gone home—has departed to be with Christ which is far better. Another trophy of Divine grace has passed triumphantly from earth.

MRS. LYDIA ROGERS, of Arcadia, departed this life on the 27th of March last aged 45 year's leaving a husband, 5 children and many kindred and friends to mourn her death. She died of consumption after a lingering illness of several years; during which, and in her death, the religion of Jesus was her stay and comfort. The deceased was baptised many years ago by the late Rev. William Burton into the fellowship of the South Yarmouth Baptist church and until the close of life, by God's grace she adorned her profession. When the church was organized at Arcadia she became one of its members and was much beloved by her brethren and sisters though on account of her feeble health she could seldom meet with them in public worship. In her death the church has lost a valuable member, her family a faithful wife and mother, and her numerous relatives and friends one they highly esteemed. But the loss therein sustained is her eternal gain. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."—Com. by Rev. Isa. Wallace.

Religious Intelligence.

WALLACE RIVER, CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—Bro. E. B. Corey writes from Wallace River: "We had the pleasure of baptizing eight happy converts on Sunday 20th inst. It was an affecting sight to see our Deacon leading two of his own children into the water. Notwithstanding the bad state of the roads, the congregations were very large. People like to see baptism performed in the scriptural way. The Lord is working like Himself, and sinners are coming from every quarter."

SMALL POX IN JACKSONTOWN AND WOODSTOCK, N. B.—Dear Brother Selden, A short time ago we were enjoying a blessed revival in this place, the church was quickened, backsliders reclaimed, and sinners converted to God. But a gloom is now cast over the entire country, small-pox having made its appearance at Upper Woodstock and Jacksonville. It is now in eight or ten houses, four have already died, and very many are sick with the disease, and how much further it will spread we cannot tell. It broke out in a trying way a young man came on from Boston who had just recovered from the disease and visited a family by the name of Stone, an old man aged 80 years took the disease and the people from all parts came to visit him and attend his funeral. In this way it spread. It is found that those who have been vaccinated do not mind it much and soon recover. Some who have been in constant attendance on the sick do not take it. This must show the great propriety there is in attention to vaccination. We should not wait until the disease makes its appearance but the whole country should attend to vaccination then when it comes it will not be likely to spread.

Our schools and churches are all closed. May God put to his hand and stay the monster. The Christian Messenger comes every week freighted with the glorious news of Salvation which brings joy to my soul. May the wheels of salvation roll on until the whole world shall be converted to King Jesus.

H. A. CHARLTON.

Jacksontown, April 21, 1873.

ST. JOHN N. B.—We learn from the Visitor of last week that there was an interesting union baptism at the ballast wharf on Sabbath morning last, in the presence of a large and solemn assembly, conducted by the Rev. W. P. Everett of Brussels street, and Rev. J. T. Parsons of Waterloo street (Free Baptist). The former baptised four and the latter seven.

Rev. I. E. Bill baptised one on Sabbath morning, and received three into the Leicester street church in the evening. The Lord be praised for these tokens of love.

ST. STEPHEN.—Rev. J. W. Manning writes: "Yesterday I baptised one; three since the new year."

A communication to the Canadian Baptist reports a revival in the Canadian Literary Institute: 'God has been manifesting his saving grace in the Institute recently, with a power and breadth which we have never before witnessed here. Already every student in the school has been impressed. I cannot mention the number who are rejoicing in hope—probably thirty.'

Provincial Parliament.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

On TUESDAY the Yarmouth Election Committee reported that Mr. Ryerson was entitled to his seat.

The License Question came up for consideration in Committee. A motion to defer the Bill for three months was carried in Committee, but when the Committee reported the motion was lost by a majority of one.

The Revised Statutes took up the larger portion of the time of this and several other days.

On WEDNESDAY Mr. Taylor asked leave to introduce a bill to enable the city to let the Market House for purposes other than a Market, but the House refused, the session being so near its close.

On THURSDAY the bill to amend the Railway Act of last session, so as to enable a company to construct the eastern road in sections, and receive a portion of the subsidy, was defeated by a vote of 16 to 13.

The Liquor License Bill was also taken up and subsequently laid aside for the Act sent from the City Council. It was discussed but not passed.

On FRIDAY the Bill for the regulation of Mining—weighing of coals &c., was before the House.

Mr. Blanehard, according to previous appointment brought forward his resolutions for reducing the number of members in the Legislative Council, but they were defeated by an amendment moved by the Attorney General, declaring it inexpedient to make so great a constitutional change until the people demand it.

The Prorogation is expected to take place to-morrow, Thursday.
