To MR. CALLED GATES—This is to certify that I had inflammation of the lungs for some months. After consulting several medical men, and receiving no relief, I was induced by some of my friends to try Gates medicines. I purchased three bottles and after I had taken the third bottle, I began to find myself growing strong and ever since I have been in perfect health. I do not hesitate to recommend this medicine to those similarly affected; and if this certificate is of any benefit to you, you are entirely welcome.

With many thanks, respectfully yours, JOHN WHEATON. Sworn before me, at Wilmot, this 10th day of August, 1869. BENJAMIN SPINNEY, J. P.

PAUL and CHRIST: A PORTRAITURE AND AN ARGUMENT.

BY J. M. CRAMP, D. D.

This small volume is rich in vigorous thought and in devout feeling. In ten short chapters he sketches the early life and the labours of the great Apostle, his views of Christ, of faith, of regeneration, and holiness, his letters and theology. The whole is at once a history and an argument, full of instructive lessons, and decisive as evidence of the truths of Christianity. Dr. Cramp has made himself familiar with modern Biblical criticism, and gives in the text or in notes the result of recent scholarship. The volume will find no small acceptance with teachers, ministers, and intelligent readers generally. We give it a cordial welcome.—Freeman.
