

on—house cleaning, fence white washing, &c., &c., so there need be no hesitation on the part of Associational going folk, either east or west. The catch of codfish promises to equal if it does not exceed that of former years—no doubts need be entertained therefore, respecting our ability to provision the armies of the Lord. We are a liberal people, notwithstanding all contrary impressions and “the liberal heart deviseth liberal things,” you know you had better come therefore, who have a right to mingle with such gatherings who have interest to study and promote relative to the Redeemer's Kingdom. But all who are coming for whom provision must be made—to be made for all—must send in their names before or by the fifth of June. You ask why so early? No matter. The ship is best managed by the captain. But hark! I think I hear the inquiry from a multitude of lips, Where is this Lookport? and how shall we reach it? In reply we say it is nearer than Salm, situated on the Atlantic Coast, about thirty-five miles from Liverpool and twenty from Shelburne, and is approached either by land or water. We had no difficulty in finding our way through the forest wild, to Bridgetown last year, and are no wiser than many of our friends. We are arranging, however to bring as many as possible by water. If our plans succeed, the steamer, “M. A. Starr,” will bring our Western friends at the usual rate and at their own convenience, and our fast sailing, well equipped, Packet “Kate” will accommodate our Eastern friends.—Those who wish to avail themselves of either arrangement will oblige by so stating in their communication, as recommended above.

Yours in bonds of christian fellowship,
EDWARD WHITMAN.

OSBORNE, SHELBURNE CO.—Rev. G. B. Titus, in a P. S., writes May 19th:—“The Master is still giving to his people here rich tokens of his favour. We have not as yet received the “abundance of rain” but drops of mercy and love, from our heavenly Father, have descended upon us refreshing us as a Church and giving peace and comfort to those who sought the Lord with “full purpose of heart.” Last Sunday we baptized two, and a few weeks ago five by baptism and four by letter were added to the Church. Thus we are remembered by Him who said “Ask and ye shall receive.” Our prayer is that His kingdom may speedily come, and with such power that the knowledge of our Redeemer may extend to “earth's remotest bound.”

MARGARETVILLE, WILMOT, May 20th 1874.—Dear Editor.—The Church in this place had been for a long time, in a state of declension, but through the blessing of God upon the labours of our Pastor, Rev. J. A. Moore, who together with the venerable Dr. Tupper, commenced a series of meetings in March, which have been attended with happy results. God's people have been revived, and those who were far off, have been brought nigh by the precious blood of Christ, verifying the promise, “I will make them joyful in my house of prayer,” and “Then shall ye call upon me and I will hearken unto you.”

The ordinance of baptism, has been administered to thirty-three persons, which with one restored, makes an addition of thirty-four to the church in this locality. The meetings are still well attended, and very interesting. In looking back on the low state of religious feeling which prevailed a few months ago, we are constrained to say, “What hath God wrought.” May these favours from His hand stir the hearts of his children to new acts of obedience, assured that through him they shall at length triumph over the enemies of the cross. “For if God be for us who can be against us.” O that every heart may be filled with love and gratitude to God for the blessed work now going on through the land! Halleluiah! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.—Com.

MILL VILLAGE, QUEENS CO., May 21st 1874.—Bro. Shields baptized five persons here last Sabbath, 17th inst., on “profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.”

ERRATUM.—In a communication from Mill Village on the 13th inst., instead of “Christian spiritual Baptism” read Christian scriptural Baptism.

PLEASANTVILLE, LUNenburg Co.—Dear Sir.—I am happy to report a continuance of the good work at Pleasantville. Two were baptized on Lord's day afternoon, a father about 67 years, and his youngest daughter treading together in the footsteps of their Lord. There will to others baptized on Sunday next. S. M.

AYLESFORD.—Brother Tufts writes May 25th: “The good work in Aylesford is progressing, yesterday, May 24th, Bro. Vidito baptized 10 more happy converts, making 114 since he came here, and several more expect to go forward next Sabbath. Truly our good Dr. Tapper, in his old age has cause to rejoice, as well as many others here for the wonderful outpouring of God's Spirit among us.”

NEW MINAS, May 25th 1874.—Dear Editor.—I baptized 3 yesterday into the fellowship of the 3rd Horton Church, and the Sabbath before 2 at Kentville and received one by letter.

JAMES PARKER.

BERWICK.—Bro. Wallace, we learn, baptized 3 last Lord's day at Berwick, and goes this week to Cumberland County. We are informed that he will first visit Parrboro, Advocate Harbor, and Three Sisters.

For the Christian Messenger.

MORE ABOUT THE SUGGESTION TO THE UNION.

Dear Editor.—Since making the suggestion about the Anniversary of the Union which appeared in your issue of May 6th, I received a communication from Dr. Day, requesting me to place my views more fully before the readers of your paper. This I would have done in your last number, had I not learned that the Rev. G. Armstrong had written on the subject. Further reasons for the proposal already made were withheld, that the views of Mr. A. might appear alone.

Brother A. does not agree with me, but I do most heartily agree with him. He proposes a long stride, I proposed a short step in the same direction. The service of memory led me to conclude, that the Union of the Maritime Provinces in Home Missionary work was far in the future; but, as it now seems, the future in this matter, is not truly forecast by the past. I cannot forget the years in which were pleased to get along with three missionary societies in this province; and I had fallen into the delusion that we must get along for some years to come in our present state, but it seems now that I have been cherishing erroneous views.

The disadvantages to the Anniversary of wandering among the three Associations, now begging favour of one, and now of another, are so apparent; and are so thoroughly known by the experience of the old society, that a change is indispensable to harmony and the highest success. But if we are so near to the larger Union, it may not be wise to spend time in effecting the change which has been suggested. I am now led to believe that we are ready for the greater change. Nova Scotia is willing, Prince Edward Island is willing, and New Brunswick will doubtless seriously consider the matter.

The Associations in New Brunswick may deal with the subject at their coming meetings; and if the decision should be for marriage, then the larger organization may be perfected at the Convention in August 1875.

The conservative views of the body are fairly represented, in my opinion, by Bro. Armstrong. If so, we are ripe for Home Missionary Union. We shall wait patiently to see what New Brunswick says.

Acadia College, Foreign Missions, and Home Missions for the Convention of the Maritime Provinces! Allow me to unite with Bro. Armstrong in calling upon the Baptists of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island, to arise and bind these three great interests to their hearts.

Now is the time to offer prayer to Almighty God for a revival of apostolic benevolence in the Churches. The giving must be increased, the talking must be less, and the doing must be more, else the organizations and arrangements will be largely failures. Truly yours,
E. M. SAUNDERS.

Deaths.

At Wolfville, May 18th, after ten days' illness, — infant son of Rev. D. McDonald, aged 1 month and 2 days.

“As vernal flowers that scent the morn,”
“But wither in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus sweetly fled his little way.”

“He died to sin; he died to care;
“But for a moment felt the rod;
Then, rising on the vewless air,
“Spread his bright wings, and soared to God;
“(P. E. Island papers please copy.)

At Macaan, on the 10th inst., Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Mr. Amos Beuchern, in the 34th year of her age. She had been for 14 years a consistent member of the Baptist Church at Macaan. She was happy in life and triumphant in death. “I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, blessed are the dead that die the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labours and their works do follow them.—Com. by H. B.

At the residence of deacon James Layton, Amherst, May 18th, Mrs. Margaret L. Cox, widow of the late Charles Cox, of Stewick, aged 44 years. Since the death of her husband, two years ago, sister C's health gradually failed, and consumption set in and performed its deadly work. She has left an aged mother a little daughter, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. The Amherst Church has had the prayers and services of one of its best members.—Com. by D. A. S.
