A letter from Miss Robinson, who has had leave of absence on account of ill health, resigning her position as principal of the Acadian School, was accepted, and the Chairman was requested to send Miss Robinson a letter, expressive of the Board's sorrow at the loss of her services. A letter was read from Mr. Jack, accepting the situation as Principal of the Morris Street School, at a salary of $1200.

POLITICAL RUMORS have been affoat during the past week that we are just on the eve of a General Election. It is supposed that Hon. Mr. Ross will take the Halifax Collectorship, that Hon. Mr. Vail will seek for an election to the Dominion Parliament, County Baptist Sabbath School Convention | and various other changes will be made in the present Local Government by appointments of the present incumbents.

The Amherst Gazette says :- " Cumberland has usually been divided into two political parties with the lines pretty well marked. It appears that now we are to have three parties with their respective candidates :- Hiram Black, Esq., nominated by the Liberal Conservative Convention; Dr. R. Mitchell, who presents himself as a candidate independent in politics; and Peter McDonald, Esq., J. P., a Reformer, who announces himself a supporter of the present Government.

CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS .- The merits of the petitions against the setting members for Cumberland, Pictou, and Inverness, are now ready for trial, preliminary objections having been disposed of. In these Counties, the Courts of the respective ad hoc judges will open on Tuesday the 15th instant, in the respective shiretowns. Mr. Alex. James will preside at Amherst, to adjudicate upon Hibbard vs. Tupper; Mr. James W. Johnston at Pictou, to decide upon Mr. Doull's petition against Carmichael and Dawson; and Mr. Henry, at Port Hood, to investigate the protest against the legality of the return of Mr. Macdonnell. There is therefore a probability of early decisions being arrived at in these cases. - Recorder.

WOLFVILLE, - A few days ago a little boy thirteen years of age, named Hamilton, met with a serious accident from a scythe Wednesday the 16th, at 10, A. M. As it in the hands of another boy. The large is the Annual Meeting a large attendance artery of the leg was cut and he would have bled to death but for the prompt assistance of a gentlemen near, who bound up the wound. He was supposed to be recovering, but lock-jaw supervened and he died last week.

A man named Dykens, an inmate of the Poor House, Billtown, strayed away about the 15th ult., and was found after the lapse of eleven days, in the woods at Steam Mill Vill, in an exhausted condition.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION last week held at Yarmouth was an occasion of deep interest. About 120 delegates were present, and the following officers were

President, W. D. Stewart, Esq. Vice-Presidents, Hon. Judge Young, F. Dennis, A Patterson, W. Warnick and E. D. King, Esqs.

Secretaries, H. R. Smith, A. McDonald and W. Powers.

Treasurer, N. Hilton, Esq. During the sessions, papers were read on various subjects connected with Sabbath School work, which were followed by interesting and profitable discussions. Arrangements are being made to have those papers printed and circulated for the benefit of Sabbath school teachers throughout the Maritime Provinces. Rev. H. M. Parsons, from Boston, a zealous Sabbath School worker was present, and by his addresses and practical suggestions added much to the interest of the Convention. The Convention closed on Tuesday evening, by a farewell meeting in the Central Baptist Church, at which stirring addresses were delivered; about 1000 persons were present. Much interest in the subject was manifested by the people of Yarmouth.

THE PAIN-KILLER-We have known the high character of this medicine, and that it is used with great success and satisfaction Site is the great question to be settled by in our very best famslies. It is the favorite medicine of our missionaries in heathen together for the diseasee that abound in those warm climates. It should be kept in every house, and be in readiness for sudden attacks of sickness .- Christian Press of the kindness and hospitality of which they were the recipients.

A Nova Scotian abroad - We copy the following from the Minneapolis Mail of July 20th : -

"Mr. G. R. Daniels has left the Farmer's Union, and will go East for his health. Mr. Daniels is a Neva Scotian and has traveled largely in the West Indies, and the Southern and Western States. His genial manners and gentlemanly deport-ment, together with his educational qualifleations have won him many friends who wish him health and prosperity."

A private letter from his successor says: Knowing Mr. D., to be a Nova Scotian (of Bridgetown) a graduate of Acadia Colwould be gratifying to his N. S. friends to know of his successful efforts in life in the west, which unfortunately together with his failing health now compels him to abandon."

ACCIDENT .- At Yarmouth one day last week while a man named Thos. Subey was working on board the M. A. Starr, a coil of wire rope, weighing over two tons, tell on one of his feet and crushed it. Amputation of the leg above the ankle was performed by Doctors L. R. Webster and E. H. Kelley.

YARMOUTH.—The laying of the first rail took place on Wednesday last. The first spike was driven by G. B. Doane, Esq., President of the Company; the second by S. M. Ryerson, E q., Treas. the third by B. P. Ladd, Esq.; the fourth by J. K. Ryerson, Esq.; the fifth by G. W. Pooker, E-q., and the sixth by J. W. Bingay, Esq., Secretary of the Company.

The rails on hand—500 tons—will be laid in a few days.
