POSTPONEMENT.

AFTER due consideration of matters with reference to Drawing of "BOOK SALE" on 20th of August, we this day, notify all our Agents and friends that, for the following reasons, we are obliged to Postpone "Distribution of Prizes" until Thursday, the 16th day of December, 1874:

1st. When commencing in April we anticipated getting the Agency organized and at work much sooner than we did.

2nd. Publishers with whom we had made the Contracts, through some unforeseen accidents in bindery and printing, could not fill orders for several weeks hence, causing a serious delay.

3rd. Owing to the inactivity of trade and tightness of the money market during past Winter and Spring, the people generally were slow to subscribe, and in many instances could not fulfil their promises to Agents. Hence, our Agents did not do all that we anticipated of them in the time given.

Therefore, after consulting many of the numerous purchasers of our Books, we have decided to Postpone Distribution as above stated.

We now have over 5,000 Books sold, and probably may have them all disposed of before the date mentioned. If so, shall have Distribution sooner; of which the public shall have due notice. Our Agents are hereby authorized to say to the people that, in any case, whether books are sold or not, the Drawing will take place not later than the day above mentioned.

Yours respectfully, ROGERS & BLACK, Amherst, N. S., Aug. 10, 1870.

We, the undersigned, being personally acquainted with Messrs. ROGERS & BLACK, have no hesitation in saying that the reasons given for Postponement of Distribution of Prizes in their Book-Sale, as above set forth, are true, and we believe that the public can rely upon their faithfulness carrying out all they promise.
