

religion of Christ with Bro. Shafner was a living principle. "A well of water springing up into everlasting life." When he drew near the river of death his faith was strong and his hope as an anchor of the soul both sure and steadfast. His desire was to "depart and to be with Christ, which is far better." May his mantle and a double portion of his spirit be upon his children and grandchildren. That they all my meet him in that house not made with hands eternal in the Heavens.

Soldier of Christ, well done, Praise be thy new employ; And while eternal ages run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

—Com. by W. G. P. We copy the following from the Los Angeles Herald of Nov. 15th. It is an account of the removal of a daughter of Rev. W. Hobbs:

LITTLE JESSIE'S DEPARTURE.

The morning at length came, after seven days of intense suffering, proceeding from a complication of diseases, any one of which would have been far too much for one so naturally delicate from birth, viz: scarlet malarial and congestive fever, with a diphtheritic inflammation of the epiglottis, rendering deglutition quite impossible. But the morning came which was her last. The doctor felt her pulse, which was faint and few, and the heart throbbed under his fingers, and he knew it was premonitory; but he was anticipated by the mother, who before he spoke, said, "My darling Jessie's going! O, how can I give her up? How can I part with one so dear? But I will say, Thy will and not mine be done." The parents then felt that they had never loved anything else on earth and never would love anything again, for she was the sunshine of their dwelling. No tears of sorrow could fall upon that little upturned angelic face, now fast changing to marble. The happy spirit of the dear lamb was gone. Angels with noiseless footsteps had been in waiting round the bed and in the room and bore her triumphant spirit to the throne, dressed in the habiliments of glory, where the inhabitants never say "I am sick." So passed away from the fond embrace of parents, brother and sister and many admiring friends, without a struggle or a groan, our dear little Jessie Hobbs, born March 27, 1865, in Sydney, New South Wales; in her ninth year.

Religious Intelligence.

GREENFIELD, Nov. 30th, 1874.—Dear Brother,—The Lord is still carrying on his work of grace in the hearts of sinners in this place. Yesterday I baptized four believers into the fellowship of the Greenfield Church, others are coming to the Saviour. One backslider returned, he had been wandering for eleven years. We are greatly encouraged. During this present year I have baptized sixty and received six by letter in my field of labor. May the Lord continue His good work till many more shall be brought into His fold. I am yours, H. ACHILLES.

RIVER HERBERT, CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—On Tuesday, Dec. 1st, the church and congregation at River Herbert, met at the parsonage, and presented their minister, Bro. H. Bool with a donation amounting to one hundred dollars. The evening was pleasantly spent, and the good wishes of the assembly were expressed in the following interesting address:

Rev. and Dear Sir,—I am extremely happy to be the medium of presenting you with the amount contributed by your friends, as a token of their respect and appreciation of your ministerial labors. It is our earnest prayer that you may long be spared to minister to us in spiritual things and that a large blessing may attend both you and your esteemed partner. Signed, J. W. Wood.

TANCOCK.—Rev. T. C. DeLong baptized one believer in Christ here on the 26th ult.

BERWICK, Dec. 7, 1874.—Dear Editor.—It is my privilege again to record rich triumphs of God's grace amongst us. Yesterday I had the pleasure of baptizing 8 courageous converts chiefly all heads of families and constituting a valuable no-cession to the church. The good work thus commenced at one of the Mountain sections of our church is likely to extend. We humbly ask the prayers of your pious readers that it may.

It is with great satisfaction that I report most favorably of the conduct of the large number of converts baptized here last winter and spring. They are very generally adorning their profession and our prospects as a church seem hopeful.

The new church formed last year at Cambridge, of members dismissed from the 2nd Cornwallis Baptist Church, have recently done themselves great credit by renovating their place of worship. It is not all that could be desired. The dedication service took place a few Sabbaths ago and were conducted by bro. E. O. Read and myself. They are at present supplied by students from the College and a good feeling prevails. The young people's prayer meetings I am told are especially hopeful.

The news from Yarmouth, the scene of my former pastoral labours, as well as from your city, of the progress of the work of God greatly cheers my heart, and I hope and pray that the gracious work may spread among all our Churches.

Yours truly, IFA. WALLACE.

Fourteen survivors were rescued by the "Gairlock," of Glasgow, after they had been floating 23 hours in a boat. The loss of the steamer is attributed to the shifting of heavy grappling apparatus. Unavailing attempts were made to save the vessel by lightening her. Captain, surgeon, and three officers, engineers, stewards and cooks, eleven stokers, fourteen seamen, and the whole cable staff, numbering sixteen, including Mr. Rykett, the chief electrician, were drowned. The chief steward, who was saved, reports that the fires were all out about ten o'clock on the morning of the 20th. A heavy sea carried away two boats.
