

INDIANS SHOT.—On Thursday, September 17, two drunken Indians, Peter Glode and Philip Penall, belonging to Gold River, Chester, made a raid on the house of George Kaiser. Penall had a gun and threatened to shoot them. The family were dreadfully frightened. The woman and children fled to the woods and remained there till midnight. Kaiser ran to a neighbor's house and borrowed a gun loaded with small shot, and fired at the Indians, whereby Glode was slightly injured but Penall is badly wounded, having received nearly the whole charge in his face and breast. Glode has been taken to Lunenburg jail.—Recorder.
