

THE LATE REV. JOHN McDONALD.

We regret very much to hear of the death, in June last, of the Rev. John McDonald, B. A., in Nebraska, formerly of Ugg, in this Island.

Mr. McDonald was a young man of brilliant talents, great perseverance, and uncommon energy. He never entered a contest of any kind, but to win.

Mr. McDonald was a graduate of Acadia College, Nova Scotia. His early death will be lamented by none more than by those connected with this institution.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—The Lord is still smiling upon us in this little Isle of the Sea. Since you last heard from me, sixteen more happy converts followed their Saviour at Bedouque and one at Tyron.

The wants of this Island are great. There are now seven fields waiting, longing, looking and praying for settled pastors.

I shall be glad to give all the information I can to any of our brethren, whose minds are turned towards the Island as a field of labor for the Master.

We look not for men who are asking for large salaries; but we look for men who are asking and looking for large success in winning souls to Jesus.

Come in the spirit and power of the Master, and reap these fields for him. Be assured that if you are successful in winning the souls of the people, you shall win their hearts also.

My address, until further notice is given, will be Dundas.

D. McDONALD Dundas, P. E. I. August 17th 1874.

ORDINATION OF THE REV. G. F. CURRIE.

The Baptist Church at Andover and Grand Falls, Victoria County, have called a Council from the adjacent Baptist Churches to consider the propriety of setting apart, by the imposition of hands, to the work of the gospel ministry, our valued brother, G. F. Currie.

The following churches were represented: Grand Falls, Andover, Jacktown, Centreville and Florenceville, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Me.; Fort Fairfield, Me.;

Our brother's relation of his Christian experience and call to the ministry, and doctrinal statements, were highly satisfactory to the Council, who agreed most unanimously upon his ordination, which took place on the afternoon of the same day at 2 o'clock p. m., in the presence of a large and solemn assembly.

The following was the order of services: Sermon by Rev. G. Seely, from 1 Cor. iv. 1—'Stewards ye are of the mysteries of God.'

Charge to the candidate by the Rev. E. Nugent.

Charge to the church by the Rev. H. A. Charlton.

Right hand of fellowship by the Rev. I. E. Bill, jr.

Benediction by the Rev. G. F. Currie.

The congregation appeared to be deeply interested in the solemn proceedings, and we trust that good was done.

Brother Currie has gone into a growing and pleasant field of labor. The people have promised a generous support, and his labors of love and faith will doubtless prove a great blessing to many precious souls.

LITTLE RIVER, Aug. 22nd, 1874—Dear Bro. Seiden.—On Sabbath 9th inst., it was my privilege to administer the ordinance of Baptism to one rejoicing believer in the Lord, the head of a large respectable family, and a Methodist for thirty years.

The baptism was at Waterdale. Yours very truly, E. B. C.

THEIR WORKS SHALL FOLLOW THEM.—The ship which carried the first Baptist missionaries to India, fifty years ago, also carried a sailor-boy, named James Christie.

The Baptists of Ireland recently held their annual conference at Coleraine. The statistics showed that the number of Baptists has been more than doubled during the last ten years.
