The animals had to be killed. Reports come to the North Sydney "Herald" of a larger catch of mackerel in Gabarus Bay than for over 20 years before. Some boats have taken 45 barrels already. Quebec papers fear that on account of the rigor of the season and the incessant rains, the crops will be very deficient, un- less the autumn be more than usually pro- pitious and prolonged. KINGS COLLEGE WINDSOR, held its an- mual commemoration on Wednesday and Thursday last. There was a good atten- dance of the friends and Alumni, notwith- standing the cold and unpleasant weather. The number of students during the past year was seventeen, a small number when the superior advantages of the Institution are considered, and traceable it is supposed minly to the absence of a good Collegiate school. An effort is to be made to re- build the Academy, and this no doubt will tend to work well for the interests of the College. Some large subscriptions have been already handed in for this object. The CENTRAL BOARD OF ACRICULTURE has been sitting in Halifax during the past week. Several representatives from Societies in different parts of the country were present. The Baptist Union informs us that Henry Ward Beecher sprinkled several children the other Lord's-day, and then, in his ser- mon said, "I don't believe that infant bap- tism is insisted upon in the New Testa- ment; the nearest you can get to it is a far-fetched inference. Yet, I practice in- fant baptism. Why? Because I think it is a beautiful ordinance." According to this principle, we may have as many differ- ent ordinances as we please, if our own notions of "beauty" and not the Word of God are to constitute our authority.	at the evil, e naturally. reat tide of constantly in territory out of exis- at this was d in by us nate extinc- an evil has a bas come	<ul> <li>Young Lady in Granville St.</li> <li>Church, per Rev.
