These are but specimens of what have come to us from many of our correspondents in various parts of the country.

Meeting a friend on the Dartmouth steamboat a few days since, a conversation occurred respecting an aged brother whose obituary notice appears in our present issue.

"So Brother Maloney is gone at last." "Yes, he was a great man." "A great man? I was not aware that he had distinguished himself, except among his own people, and by his great age."

Here we thought is a prime element in greatness which may be sought by a large number of brethren in every church.

The BAPTIST QUARTERLY for April contains as usual, a valuable series of articles. 1. Psychology, by J. T. Champlin; 2. Religious Freedom in Russia; 3. Causes and Final Causes, by Rev. F. B. Palmer; 4. Progress and Results of Cuneiform Decipherment, by O. T. Ma-on; 5. The Relation of Plato's Philosophy to Christian Truth by J. L. Lincoln; 6. Our mission as Baptists, by J. H. Cuthbert; 7. Autobiography of John Stuart Mill, by Heman Lincoln.

Each article is replete with fresh thought on the subject of which it treats. That on "Religious Freedom in Russia" is a review of the address to which Dr. Cramp referred last week. We regret that no action was taken by the late session of the Evangelical Alliance in New York, in reference to this matter.

Dr. Tyng, a clergyman of the Church of England, not long since in speaking his view of denominationalism in Sunday School work, said:—"Episcopalianism, and Presbyterianism, and Methodism, are worth nothing. I would they were all put together and cast into the sea."

THE GRAND LIGNE MISSION.

In looking over the last Baptist Register I find only ten churches, with a membership of 569, and seven pastors in connection with the Grande Ligne Mission.

many (French) Baptists. In the latter place there is now a Baptist Church, supported by the N. Y. Am. Bap. H. Miss. Society.

In politics we see lines of divisions between nations, but in religion we are one with a common field and a common interest.

P. S.—Since I left Canada, I have baptized about one hundred, who are in different States, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Dakota, Wyoming Territory, and Indiana.

With the above comes a letter from Chicago, signed by N. F. Ravlin, Thos. Foster, and B. F. Jacobs, appealing for aid to our Bro. Auger, Sainte Anne Kankakee, Ill.

MR. C. GATES.—This is to certify, that I was sick of dyspepsia and indigestion, and that I could not eat any description of food without suffering great distress? I was also troubled with piles, owing to extreme costiveness. Having had the advice of our best medical men and finding no relief I began to consider mine a hopeless case; when Mr. Gates' agent called on me and recommended me to try Gates' Remedies. I did so, though with little hope; but, I am happy to say, by their use, I have quite recovered my health, and now feel like a new man; and would heartily recommend them to any person who may be suffering at I was, and I have no doubt they will experience the same relief as I have.

My wife, also, was greatly troubled with asthma, so much so that for months she could not lie in bed; she commenced the use of Gates' Remedies, and was relieved; in fact the medicines seemed to work like magic; and she is now able to get a good night's rest and suffers no inconvenience from the asthma.

My little girl was very bad with jaundice—so bad that I had to employ the doctor; but she got worse under his treatment. I was induced to try Gates' Jaundice Medicines, and one half bottle cured her.

Personally appeared before me the Subscriber and maketh oath to the above certificate. Berwick, this 10th day of Decemr., 1869. E. C. FORSTER, J. P. May 6.

MRS. AINSLEY'S Arthranodyne Liniment.

This magical pain curing having been in use among private friends for a number of years is now offered to the public as a superlative remedy for RHEUMATIC PAINS, TOOTHACHE, NEURALGIA, SPRAINS, &c. Manufactured by Mrs. Ainsley, Halifax. Lunenburg, August 20th, 1873.

Mrs. AINSLEY, DEAR MADAM.—Having found the efficacy of your very invaluable Liniment in the case of sore throat, which by two applications I was entirely relieved both of the swelling and soreness, I was induced to apply it to the parts affected by a severe attack of Lumbago. After having my back, loin and thigh thoroughly rubbed with the mixture, I was enabled to sleep comfortably and in a few days to walk about the field. I would further add for your satisfaction that my friend with whom I heard has been entirely relieved from a pain in his shoulders, which drove him nearly to madness, by freely using the Liniment twice. Also the wife of one of my neighbours who was suffering dreadfully from an attack of acute rheumatism especially in her joints and legs; told me that she had scarcely applied it to parts affected before she felt immediate relief. I have reason to believe the Arthranodyne Liniment the best now in use.

Your obedient servant, REV. D. S. SHAW. Wholesale Agents—Brown Brothers & Co.; Forsythe & Co.; Avery Brown & Co., Halifax, Aug. 13. 6ms.
