ADVOCATE HARBOR, May 17th, 1875 .-Dear Bro .- After the Special Convention in Amberst, I returned in company with the pastor, Bro. McKeen, and we attended a prayer-meeting on Friday evening in Parrsborough with the Baptist Church. Here the harvest is ripe and the pastor has a fair prospect of gathering sheaves to repay him for his long period of sowing. On Saturday the 15th in time to attend the Conference, at which two brothren and two sisters, all young people of promise were received for baptism. These were baptized the following day, Sabbath, and received into the church. It was a joyful day for the church in Advocate. The communion season with these new members was refreshing. Bro. Layton is much encouraged of late in his work. Eight have been baptized in Fraserville, making twelve in all and one restored, and others are coming. A solemn interest prevails in Eatonville and in all parts of his field. His labors are highly and increasingly appreciated. After much toil and disencouragement, he begins to see the light from above shining on his work and on himself. Any aid that can be afforded to this brother will be worthily bestowed. I expect to return home across the Bay in a few days, when I will forward my financial report for the last month for publication. Yours, &c.,

D. FREEMAN.

MACKNAQUACK, N. B - The numerous friends of the Rev James Tupper of Mackpaquack will be sorry to learn that he is, and has been for some time, prostrated on a bed of sickness. Though under good medical treatment and care, yet his recovery is uncertain. Our prayer is that this aged servant of Christ may be raised up and restored to health, and yet labour for the salvation of souls, in which work God has made him very useful in the past. T. M. MUNRO.

Already we have 9 applicants for baptism to come before the church for next Sabbath. With God's blessing upon the means, we hope next | Mahone Bay.
