TEA MEETING, MOUNT PLEASANT, CUMBERLAND CO.—The brethren at the above place, under the energetic lead of our county missionary Rev. E. B. Corey, have engaged in raising a house of worship.

CAPE BRETON.—The bodies of the man Broderick and the boy Walton, who were drowned on the 14th inst., at Little Glace Bay, while out fishing, were found last Wednesday—the former on the beach at Big Glace Bay and the latter at Schooner Pond.

CAMBRIDGE, CORNWALLIS.—On Tuesday of last week the Cambridge Baptist and Prospect Union Sabbath Schools held a picnic on the grounds between the Cambridge Baptist Church and District School House.

ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Nathan Kileup, of Woodville, Cornwallis, a few days ago was sitting on a wagon loaded with poles, and when passing between two barns the wheel struck a ladder which fell. The oxen were afflicted by the fall of the ladder and ran away.

An old man threw himself from Smith's wharf on Sunday afternoon, but suddenly came to his senses and made for the landing place. His wife went for him.

A man named Martin was thrown from his horse on the Quinpool road, on Saturday afternoon, and was being dragged by his foot in the stirrup when the horse was stopped, or he must have been killed.

PRESTON was visited by a large number of the colored population on Sunday last, to join in a general religious meeting.

PUGWASH is to be favoured by a lecture from John March, Esq., of St. John, N. B.

ROBBERIES.—Two soldiers stole half-a-dozen rings from a store in Granville Street last week. They were identified and one of them convicted and sentenced to 90 days at Rockhead.

A young man named Henry Turner a wharf laborer stole about $200 from a cash box in A. G. Jones & Co's office on Saturday last. He was caught about 11 o'clock at night in a state of intoxication.

A man, was caught in the act of robbing a charity box at St. Patrick's Church on Saturday last. He was detected by a Sister of Charity, who kindly allowed him to depart.

OUR CIVIC ELECTIONS are matters of great interest to the parties contesting. If Alderman Coumbes and Seaton do not both get elected it will not be from want of effort.

In addition to the names already announced as candidates for Aldermanic honor, John D. Mackintosh has published his card to the electors of Ward One. Duncan Grant is the other candidate for that Ward.

YARMOUTH has raised plums of which they may justly boast. The Herald says: On a tree in the garden of T. M. Lewis, Esq. Six of these plums weighed 1 lb. They are of the "Bradshaw" variety.

PICTOU Co.—The Standard of last week gives an account of the death of a young Indian woman named Mary Handley by the accidental burning of her clothes, caught while cooking breakfast for the family.

EAST INDIA HEMP, And What We Know About It.

Instead of devoting a column to the merits of this strange and wonderful plant, we remain silent and let it speak for itself through other lips than ours, believing that those who have suffered most can better tell the story.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH, Alleghany, O. Y., Pa., Nov. 10, 1874.

The East India Hemp has been taken by Rev. Matthias Binber, O. S. B., and Rev. Sebastian Arnold, O. S. B., both assistant pastors of this church, and so far has given relief to both.

CHINA GROVE, Rowan Co., N. C., Oct. 21, 1874.

Send one dozen Ointment and one of Cannabis Indica. When Mr. J. W. Fisher brought his wife to me for examination, I found her in the incipient stage of tuberculous consumption.

FRATERNALLY yours, P. A. SIFFORD, M. D. RIDGEVILLE, Caswell, N. C., Sept. 12, 1874.

Inclosed is $10 for more of the Indian Hemp. I can truly say that the medicine has done me more good than all the doctors, and I had several of the best in the country.

W. A. FULLER. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26, 1874.

Your treatment for consumption has so improved my condition, that the inquiry comes every day from my friends. What are you taking? Several are talking of sending for some of your medicine, and James Huff desires me to order for him $9 worth of the Hemp.

DECHERD, Franklin, Tenn., Sept. 12, 1875.

Send three more bottles of your consumption and bronchitis cure. My son began taking the Hemp last night three weeks ago, and he is improving rapidly.

DEEP RIVER, POWDSHICK, Iowa, Jan. 3, 1874. I have just seen your advertisement in my paper. I know all about the Cannabis Indica fifteen years ago it cured my daughter of the Asthma she had it very bad for several years, but was perfectly cured.

N. B.—This Remedy speaks for itself. A single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical $2.50 per bottle, or three bottles for $6.50 Pills and Ointment $1.25 each. Sent at our risk. CRAIDDICK & Co., 1032 Race Street, Philadelphia. Dec. 23. 13wco.
