IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. RHODA DAVISON,

relict of the late Asa Davison, of Hantsport, Nova Scotia, died at her late residence, August 3rd, at the advanced age of 87 years. Sister Davison moved to Hantsport, in company with her beloved husband September 15th, 1815. Their house was, during the early history of Hantsport, open, and used as a place of public worship-known as, "The old red house by the river." Fathers Harding and Manning were among the ministers who found there both a home, and a house consecrated to the worship of God. No doubt that at the resurrection of the just many will come forth of whom it may be said, " this and that man was born there."

Our sister professed religion in early life, and always exemplified the christian character, and although never boasting, yet always confiding in the merits of Christ. Among her last utterances were the following-" I do not know why he keeps me waiting." "Its only a little while now." "Only Christ." She leaves three sons, and one daughter, with a large number of grand and great grand children. and friends to mourn her loss. Her funeral was attended by a large concourse of people and improved by the pastor, with a sermon upon 2 Cor. v. 4. May God sustain all who mourn, and give us all a glorious reunion where death cannot sever, is the prayer of, J. C. B.

Hantsport, Sept. 7tn, 1875.

MRS. SARAH STEVENS.

On the 6th July, Mrs. Sarah Stevens, aged 77, widow of the late Ezra Stevens and daughter of the late James Crowe; of Onslow. More than 50 years ago, she became the subject of deep religious convictions, while under the parental roof, and soon found peace with God. About 38 years ago she was led, by prayer and a careful study of the Scriptures to renounce her Infant Baptism, which was a great trial to her, as it obliged her to be separated from her father's family. But through grace the decision was made, and she never regretted it. She was a widow nearly 23 years, during which time she was much in the furnace, but never doubted her acceptance with God. She was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lewis, in Truro, when she took sick. The writer visited her in herillness, and found her suffering intensely, yet trusting in the Rock of Ages. She loved the house of God, and prayed much for the prosperity of Zion. She earnestly longed for the conversion of her family. Her funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends. An appropriate discourse was preached by her Pastor on the occasion from James iv. 14 - Com.

REVIVAL AT FOLLEIGH LAKE AND MAIT-LAND.—The Lake above named is a beauti ful sheet of water at the head of the River of the same name. The Intercolonial Railway nowhere between Halifax and St. John attains the same altitude as here. This station furnishes an abundant supply of water for railway purposes.

Bro. E. T. Carbonnell, under appointment of the Union has been preaching, during the summer, between the Acadian Mines and this place. At the time of the expiration of his mission such an interest had been awakened here that our brother felt constrained to remain a few days longer upon the field. The writer has given what little assistance he could in the work. The earnest and anxious efforts of the missionary have been attended with the divine blessing.

Last Sabbath morning (5th inst.) found a goodly number assembled upon the shore of the beautiful lake to witners the baptism of five believers in the Lord Jesus. The previous night had been rainy, and the fog and mists clung to the mountain slopes, sending down now and again a drizzling rain until the time of assembling, when the sun appeared through the clouds, seeming to betoken the approval of Him, who, when the Lord Jesus had emerged from the waters of the Jordan, declared from heaven, "This is my Beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." The work is still progressing, and we hope soon to see others added to the company of believers, and a church organized in the place.

I might add here that bro. Martell has had some tokens of the Master's favor at Maitland. On the Sab. of Aug. 8th. Three were baptized in the presence of a large concourse of people-many of whom had, probably, never before witnessed the administration of the ordinance of christian baptism. Bro. Martell's mission is soon to expire. He is greatly endeared to the people but must leave to enter upon a course of study at Newton. This place should be immediately supplied.

ORDINATION AT CAPE WOLF, P. E. I .-By request of the Baptist Church at Cape Wolf, Lot 7, P. E. I., a Council convened on Wednesday the 1st inst., for the purpose of considering the propriety of ordaining Bro. John Gordon as a minister of the Gospel. After prayer by Rev. W. B. Haynes, the Rev. A. Chipman was unanimously appointed Moderator, and the following brethren and sisters were invited to sit with the Council:

Brothers Baker, Schurman, Strong Clark, McDonald and Sister McPhee; also Brothers D. Gray, E. Lewis and Sister E. Lewis, Clements, N. S.

The report on behalf of the church having been submitted, the candidate, Brother Gordon, at the invitation of the Moderator gave an account of his christian experience and call to the Ministry, which was highly satisfactory. The ministering brethren then propounded various questions respecting faith and doctrine; which were ably, satisfactorily and promptly answered. After which the Council cheerfully and unanimously agreed to proceed with the ordination. It was resolved that the Rev. W. B. Haynes, Charlottetown, preach the Ordination Sermon and offer the Ordaining Prayer, and that the Rev. A. Chipman, Bedeque, give the right hand of fellowship and the charge to the candidate. After prayer by Rev. A. Chipman, the Council adjourned till 3 P. M.

The Council convened at the time appointed, the meeting house being filled with attentive listeners. Bro. Gordon was duly ordained. Bro. Haynes took for his text-"I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." The sermon was clear and impressive, and well calculated to move every christian to renewed efforts in upholding the glorious banner of the Cross. All the exercises commanded marked attention, and made deep impressions which we trust will never be effaced. It is very gratifying to find the ranks of the ministry, often diminished by death, and sometimes by desertions, filled up by vigorous and carnest young men constrained by the love of Christ. Bro. Gordon is very higly esteemed by the people among whom he labors and his efforts have evidently been crowned and blessed by the Master.

In early life our sister was enabled to trust in Jesus, and was baptized by Rev. N. Vidito, and united with the Wilmot Church. She adorned her profession until Jesus called her home. She suffered much during her illness but was abundantly sustained by the consolations of the gospel. She said to the writer on one occasion that she sometimes feared her peace was too great. But we reminded her of the text "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee." At the first the thought of leaving her three little children caused her much sorrow; bat she was soon enabled to trust them to the care of her Heavenly Father. We shall greatly miss our dear sister for she was a kind neighcerned, the power of a single hun will, bour a sympathizing friend and an earnest christian worker.
