Marriages.

At Windsor May 3rd, by Rev. N. Vidito, Capt. Elkanah Lockhart, of Avondale, to Miss Eliza Ells, of Windsor.

At Grand Pre, on the 3rd inst., by the Rev. E. O Read, George W. Woodworth, E.q., of Hantsport, to Miss Sarah E., daughter of the late Mr. Daniel Allen, of the first named place.

Deaths.

In Lawrence, Mass., after a brief illness on the morning of the 17th of January, 1875 Cynthia P. Grimes, daughter of Elias and Cynthia F. Grimes, daughter of Ethis and Cynthia Grimes, passed away from earth. She was converted at a very early age and in her eleventh year was baptized by Rev. W. G. Parker into the Baptist Church at Nictaux, N. S. Shortly after this she moved to Law-rence with her father and mother and j ined the 2nd Baptist Church in that city. She died a few days before completing her 19th year, and left an unusually large circle of re-latives and friends to mourn har loss. Although three months have nearly passed since we said good bye for the last time t) our beloved sister, yet we hardly dare even now to write in remembrance of her many virtues, lest our words seem to others not acquainted with her, words of extravagant eulogy. Her life was singularly pure and faithful. She was loved and respected by all who knew her -no one ever doubled her piety for it was as clear and all pervad ng as the light and heat of the summer's sun. At the High School, where s e stood at the head of her class, in the Church and Sabbath School, where her influence was so strongly feit and acknowledged, and in her own home, where brothers and sisters loved her smile and her voice, she was the same poble Curistian girl,-without the least thought of superiority, with nothing that could possibly offend. She wire her graces as modestly as a child and communed with God as naturally as she breathed Heaven's pure air. And her death-if we must call it death-was just what anybody would expect from such a life, without the slight at fear, as calmiy as she would say "good morning " to a fliend, she bade them all good by e,-left tender messages for loved ones far away, and passed with Jesus through the valley into the other and better lite. Sad as our own hearts are as we think of her carly death, yet we thank God she was with us so long. Her life was full of Christ and when the messenger came she was ripe for th Kingdom of Heaven .- Com. by Rev. G.W. Giles. At New Annan, on the 4th inst., of a short but severe illness, John, fourth son of Samuel and Jane Gray, in the 20th year of his age. He trusted in the Lord unto the end .- Truro Sun please copy.

"CUSTOM TAILORING" H. G. LAURILLIARD, 119 HOLLIS STREET,

At Havelock, March the 22nd, Pemelia, wile of Andrew Bolsor, aged 77 years. Hers was a peaceful end.

At Port Williams, April 24th, Mrs. Ann Charleton, wife of Thomas Charleton, aged 68 years. Her end was peace.

At Port Williams, May 1st, of consumption. Nancy, wite of Wesley Charleton, aged 24 years. Mrs. Charleton was not a professing Coristian but we trust she had a hope in the Saviour.

At Milton, Queens Co., May 3rd, wife of David Freeman, aged 33 years.

At Milton, Queens Co., May 6th, of Ery-sipelas, Abigaii, widow of the late John Coombes, aged 63 years.

At the residence of her son, deacon Jesse Oakes, after a brief il ness, our aged sister, widow of the late Phineas Oakes, trusting, wa'ting, willing, departed this life and ent red upon the life beyond. It is worthy if note that she was the last person baptiz d by Father Toomas Handley Chipman. The grace of the Christian shone out in her life, Although in the 97th year of her age, her faculties seemed but sligh ly impaired. She expressed wonder that no glasses could be found that she could see to read with. Seven of her ten children still survive her; nearly seventy grand-childien and about as many great grand-children. Now with strong insmortal eles she gazes upon the King in His beauty and sings the song of the ransomed with those who had passed on before. The funeral occasion was improved by our pastor Rev. W.G. Pasker, from Luke ii. 29.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,

When the day of life is fled ; Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no fareweil tear is shed.

Com. by Phineas Whitman.

On the 16th inst, of lingering consumption, A. Mercilla, wife of George J. Richardson, Esq., aged 44 years.

On Sunday, May 16th, Elizabeth A, be-loved wife of Richard Wallace, aged 27 years.

At Amherst, May 4th, of congestion of the the brain, Percival Francis, second son of Fiederick and Frances Drake, in the 4th year of his age.

As vernal flowers that scent the morn, But wither in the rising day. Thus lovely was this infant's dawn, Thus swiftly fled his life away.

RHEUMATIC CURE. Effectually curing hundreds of our Nova Scotia citizens from that terrible malady,

RHEUMATISM.

This statement is substantially a FACT based upon evidence in the possession of the agent, in the shape of numerous testimonials from past sufferers, in all the walks of life, and particularly from some of our most respectable and trus worthy families.

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE.

In its history, this invaluable Medicine occupies the most honorable position possible for any remedy to attain. A few years since it was known only to the friends and neighbors and patients of the proprietors, and always sought for by them whenever troubled with Rheamatism, and in this way came to the notice of physicians generally, and through their favorable expression, and its acknowledged value as a Rheumatic Remedy, the demand for it became so 'request and urgent as to oblige its proprietors to increase their facilities for its manufacture. Its reputation

THE ROYAL SEWING MACHINE.

THE Gardner Sewing Machine Company of Hamilton, Ontario, seeing the failing of other Sewing Machines have lately constructed a Machine which is the nearest perfection ever yet obtained, which is now taking the lead wherevor it has been introduced. This Machine combines with the best points and tasty designs of the original Gardner and American Machines. It is unrivalled by any machine yet invented, as all the movements are derived from the main shaft, it gives to the machine great strength and durability. It has no crank motion, no gear wheels and cannot get out of order by use.

Some of the points why it is the best machine :

1st. It is so simple a child can use it.

2nd. There is no clattering of cog wheels. 3rd. The feeder can be raised or lowered by simply turning a screw.

4th. The machine is so constructed with sett screws it can be taken up at any time keeping the machine in porfect order.

5th The most wearing parts are made of stee!.

6th. The most perfect braider ever ye invented, can braid any pattern without basting. 7th. The bobbing can be filled without running the machine.

8th. Has so large a shuttle will held fifty yards of thread.

9th. Will sew from finest muslin to three thicknesses of stout leather.

10th. The tension is so easily managed.

11th. The stitch is so easily regulated.

12th. The best sett of attachments to any machine:

A everywhe e. Fourteen thousand retailed by one. Another writes: " I can make more money in this busine-s than I can on a $10,-000 farm, all stocked."
