in all civil affairs. Here, in a little State, the fundamental principles of political and ecclesiastical liberty practically prevailed, before they were even thought of in any of the schools of philosophy in Europe. At that time people predicted only a short existence for these democratical experiments. But not only have these ideas and these forms of government maintained themselves here, but, precisely from this little State have they extended themselves throughout the United States. They have conquered the aristocratic tendencies in Carolina and New York, the High Church in Virginia, the theocracy in Massachusetts, and the monarchy in all America. They have given laws to a continent, and formidable throughtheir moral influence, they lie at the bottom of all the democratic movements which are now shaking the nations of Europe. (13.) Thus he began the first civil government on the earth which gave equal liberty of conscience. (14). To conclude then. The Baptists are a people very fond of religious liberty, and very unwilling to be brought under bondage of the judgement of others. (15). As regards their form of government, they are, as every one knows, Independents who perform the rite of baptism, like the Primitive Christians, by immersion. (16). Their origin is hid in the depths of antiquity. (17). They have preserved pure the Gospel through all ages. (18). They are the only denomination of Christians who have not symbolized with the Church of Rome. (19). And let it never be forgotten of the Particular Baptists of England, that they form the denomination of Fuller and Cary, and Ryland and Hall and Foster; that they have originated one among the greatest of all missionary enterprises; that they have enriched the Christian literature of our country with authorship of the most exalted piety, as well as of the first talent and the first eloquence; that they have waged a very noble and successful war with the hydra of Antinomianism; that, perhaps, there is not a more intellectual community of ministers in our island, or who have put forth, in proportion to their number, a greater amount of mental power and mental activity in the defence of our common faith. And what is better than all the triumphs of genius or understanding, who, by their zeal and fidelity, and pastoral labor among the congregations which they have reared, have done more to swell the lists of genuine discipleship in all the walks of private society, and thus both to uphold and extend the living Christianity of our nation. RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Onslow, March 20th, 1876.—The prosperity of Zion is always cheering, and awakens in the hearts of God's people praise and thanksgiving. I rejoice greatly in the good work which is going on in many of our churches, in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and hope that it will continue and increase till all our churches are similarly refreshed.

We have not as yet to report any special manifestations of Divine power among us, but hope the day is not distant when the "Arm of the Lord will be revealed" in the salvation of souls. But we are living in harmony and love, and our meetings in some sections are quite interesting. Pray for us. The friends in West Onslow have recently erected a very neat and commodious parsonage, into which we have entered, and in the erection of which, great self denial, energy and perseverance have been displayed. The land and much of the work and labor is the gift of our indefatigable friend, Silas Clark, Esq., whose zeal and benevolence is well known in this community. Others have earnestly seconded his efforts; and brought them to a successful issue.

On Friday evening last, March 17th, a large number of the members of the Onslow church and congregation assembled to welcome the pastor and family to their new home, and manifest their sympathy and good will towards them. A sumptuous feast, good and interesting addresses from J. D. McNutt, Esq., Chairman; Mr. Hugh Wilson; Revds. Messrs. Chase and Grant (Presbyterian); William Cummings and Wm. Blair, Esqrs., and appropriate remarks from the pastor in response to an address presenting him with a purse, and useful and valuable articles to the amount of $120, tended to make the evening un usually enjoyable. Our prayer is that the donors may be ten-fold rewarded with spiritual blessings, and that the cause which thus they seek to promote may be abundantly prospered in their midst.

Yours in Christian love, STEPHEN MARCH.

ANNAPOLIS. - Mr. Editor, - Perhaps some of your readers would like to know how the cause of God is progress ing, in this locality. Union meetings were held during the first week of the ince. year, and there seemed to be so much interest manifested, that it was thought best to continue them, so they were kept up nearly every evening till the 10th of March. Nothing occurred, so far as I am aware, to interrupt the harmony existing, between christians of the different denominations, taking part in the services. The meetings have been largely attended, the prayers earnest, the appeals pointed, and generally great solemnity pervaded the exercises. With what results? It is not well, always, to speak too confidently as to results "Time will tell" is a common expression, but "eternity" will tell, in these cases, far better. The general impression is, that much good has been done here, by these efforts. Backsliders have been revived, and reclaimed, and some sinners profess to have found the Saviour. A to numbers I am not able to speak. Frequently from 30 to 40 have arisen, at one time, to request the prayers of Christians and a deep feeling seems still to rest upon the minds of very many in the community. Six have been baptized and received into the fellowship of the little Baptist-Church. One has been accepted, whose baptism, on account of illness, has not yet taken place, and others

We ask the prayers and sympathies of all the faithful.

I wish also, in this connection, to acknowledge the kindness of the friends towards myself personally. You are aware that there are but few Baptists in in this neighborhood, but they are generous and willing to do according to their ability. A number of them took us quite by surprise on Feb. 3rd. We were endeavouring to fit up a house, which we had just secured as a temporary parsonage, and the friends dropped in upon us very unexpectedly, and after an hour or so of very pleasant intercourse; left us again, $43,37 the better for the short visit. DEATHS.

At Milford, on Feb. 7th, 1876, Abraham Thomas, aged 54 years. He had been a great sufferer. But the Saviour, whom he had honored and trusted for many years, did not forsake him. He was calm and peaceful, even when his bodily pain was intense. He leaves a widow and two sons to mourn their great loss. The Milford Church has lost a deacon and faithful friend, and many are saying "his place will not be easily filled." May the Lord comfort the hearts of the mourners.

Suddenly, at Granville, Annapolis Co., on Thursday morning, 16th inst., Havilah, wife of Mr Nathan Chute, aged 56 years. She embraced religion during the pastorate of the Rev. J. Chase, and united with the Bridgetown Church thirty-five years ago. Her kindly disposition constrained her to render her assistance wherever sickness or death had entered the homes of neighbors and friends, both far and near. She was a genuine Christian. Whilst many mourn their loss, they are comforted by reflecting on her present state of happiness at God's right hand. "Her warfare is accomplished."
