On the following morning a profitable social meeting was held.

It is the prayer of many that this newly organized church may prove a great blessing to the community and the region around.

Dedication of New Baptist Meeting-House at Crow Harbor.

Dear Editor,-

Confident that your readers are always glad to learn of progress in connection with Baptist interests I take the liberty of sending you a brief account of the above dedication services, and a very few thoughts in connection therewith. On Sabbath morning the 9th inst., at quite an early hour, we found ourselves in company with a number of interested friends from Canso wending our way to Crow Harbor, where we arrived in time to attend the morning meeting in the New House recently completed and about to be set apart and solemnly dedicated as God's House. A very appropriate discourse was preached by the Rev. A. W. Barss of Guysboro, in the presence of a large and attentive audience. The speaker chose for his text the last three verses of the second chapter of Ephesians, from which he clearly set forth some of the most distinguishing features of the foundation of the christian church, showing also the intimate relation of the latter to Jesus Christ " The chief corner stone." Our attention was also directed to the important fact that the Lord's "Holy Temple" is not yet completed-the glorious work of salvation is still progressing ; still there are opportunities for enlarging the wonderful habitation of God. The practical truth that every christian is needed for special service in God's temple was forcibly presented. After the sermon the pastor of the church, read several passages on the scriptural authority for the office of Deacon, and then announced that two brethren had been elected by the church to that responsible position, Brothers John Hendsbee and Isaac Horton then came forward and were ordained deacons in the scriptural manner by prayer and the laying on of hands. The congregation was then dismissed and the church remained to celebrate the Lord's Supper... The House was again filled at 31 o'clock P. M. when the pastor Rev. G. W. Thomas preached an earnest discourse from the words "Happy is that people whose God is the Lord." The evening service was a social praise-meeting and proved to be a pentecostal season. All appeared to feel that it was indeed good to be there. The place was sweetly solemn because of the manifested presence of the Divine Spirit. Earnest prayers were offered, and our hearts were truly made glad as we listened to the cheering testimonies of christians, some of whom were comparatively young in service. The house to which we have referred is comfortably finished and sufficiently large to accommodate the Baptist congregation in that place for some time. Another very excellent feature is, that with the exception of about $100 debt it has been paid for chiefly by the little church and congregation. We were especially gratified to learn that not only the building of the house, but also the the resuscitating of the church were largely the product of the earnest and persevereing labors of Bro. Thomas since he came to Canso." Although located at a distance of 16 miles from Crow Harbor he has filled a regular appointment there every alternate Sabbath, besides expending a large amount of special effort. The church at present numbers about sixty. The success of Bro. Thomas, is suggestive. Are there not other small churches which might be cared for in a similar manner, if some of our pastors in compact fields would make the effort? A rich blessing is sure to follow all such sacrifices made for the Master. C. A. W.

> Fashions usually work their way downward. The Spelling Bee mania appears to be going upwards. It began in very humble circles, but 'seems now to be affecting the higher social regions.
