DEATHS.

At Jordan Bay, March 12th, Catherine, beloved daughter of James and Fear beloved daughter of James and Fear Irvine, aged 16 years. Suddenly prostrated by inflamation of the lungs, it was soon apparent that she could not recover. We have good ground for faith in her due preparation to meet God. To all her dear friends she left a parting message. The Lord comfort the bereaved family.—WESLEYAN please copy.—Com. By E. N. ARCHIBALD.

Thomas Thorborne, of Jordan Bay, Shelburne Co., March 15th, of lingering consumption, aged 57 years. His sickness extended over 7 years, 4 of which he was confined to his house. Fifteen years before his death, he was moved by divine love to speak and pray with God's people, and to pray with his family. His weary years of trial were sanctified to his soul. He grew more and more humble and childlike. His trust was in the atoning blood. Out of that deep well flowed all his peace and joy. His bereaved wife and family have strong consolation in his departure. May the Lord grant to all grace to love and serve his faithful Saviour.

"The days of our years are three score years and ten; and if by reason strength they be four score years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.'

At Port Williams, Annapolis Co., Feb. 20th, Zebarah, beloved wife of Edward Charlton, in the 40th year of her age. Our sister united with the Baptist Church at Port Williams in 1862. For the last eight years she had been confined to her house by severe affliction. But she was graciously sustained by the presence of her blessed Saviour and his promises.
