W HATTHEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. Joseph Rusan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anthing like it for lameness. It is a great public benefit,"—A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes, "For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which annoyed me very much. DEATHS.

Mrs. Sarah Ann, wife of brother David Crowe, and daughter of the late Wm. McCully of Mass Town. Sister Crowe was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth, was baptized and received into the fellowship of the Portaupique Baptist Church, Nov. 2nd, 1842, by the late Rev. John E. Cogswell, and died April 4th, 1876. Her disposition was quiet and retiring. Her religious character was attention toward the afflicted, a true benevolence, exercised both by herself and great sufferer happy in death. She has left a husband and seven children to mourn their great loss. "The memory of the just is blessed.

Maria, wife of Robert C. Fulton, Esq., of Upper Economy, and daughter of Patrick and Sarah Hill, died April 11th, aged 41 years. Sister Fulton was baptized Sept. oth, 1858, by the Rev. James Reid, and united with the Portaupique Baptist Church. The death of two beloved and only children was deeply felt by her. Thisheavy affliction was followed by the loss of her own health, which continued to decline for several years, terminating in consumption. Her friends, the church, and the community where she lived all regarded her as a christian indeed. The Church, Sabbath School, Missionary, and Temperance Societies all received her hearty'co-operation. Ofttimes the writer, when weary has been cheered, and invigorated in his work, by her cordial welcome to her comfortable home. Frequently have we seen her at the house of God when the frail body could scarcely sustain itself, or inclose the heavenward bound soul. She could truly say "I love the habition of thine house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth." Her death is a great loss to the church, and com-munity where she resided, but especially to her afflicted husband. Her last words were "Rock of Ages cleft for me." On the funeral occasion a sermon was preached from Ruth xi. 12.

My DEAR FRIEND-I have always, until of late, been a bitter enemy to all patent medicines for the sick. But, in conse- tion wanted concerning Machines, quence of an unlucky fall from the deck of a schooner bound to Boston, down into the cabin, by which, displacing two of the short ribs on the right side the liver was so seriously injured, that for twenty four hours death was expected every moment, In a few days, a bloat was discovered in the ankles, pervading in a short time the whole body. I am not a drunkard, but was always fond of bitters, most particularly when prepared with good brandy; this induced me, although an unbeliever, to partake of liberal draughts, in the morning, 11 o'clock, and at 4 P. M., of your Bitters, and before I thought, was cheated into a cure, so far as was possible. I am truly surprised that such a valuable, and, at the same time, safe compound, should not meet with the liberal patronage that it in my opinion, so justly merits.
