Whereas, The convention has been favored by the reading of two valuable papers by Rev. E. A. McCurdy, New Glasgow, and J. W. Barss, of Wolfville, N. S., on "Parental obligation to give Biblical instruction not transferable," which elicited profitable discussion; and with a view to having this vital subject brought more prominently before the attention of parents, so that "their pure minds may be stirred up by way of rememberance" in reference to this high and holy obligation;

Therefore resolved, That whilst recognizing the importance and valuable services rendered by the Sabbath Schools of our land in teaching the rising generation, the Convention hereby reiterates its "abiding conviction of the paramount importance of family christian training, and of the need of yet greater conscion tiousness in the discharge of the inspired injunction to parents to bring up their children in the nurture and admonition the Word which is able to make them wise unto salvation.

at our peril to think lightly of the nience sites in both of these places. seasons of paying our vows to the Lord in the presence of his people. An ordinance given by our Lord to the in 1 Corinthians ix., "The Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." carrying out the order of our Lord and Saviour. One of our exchanges very properly says of this :-

"If the support of the ministry had to China? been left to the whims of the churches it would be subject to their control and might be treated according to their pleasure; but since it is a matter of divine appointment it is in no sense an optional duty. Not as employes, or as men laboring for lucre are ministers to expect remuneration for their services; but as servants of Christ and his churches, waiting at the altar, they are to be "par-takers with the altar."

The great reason why so many churches are delinquent in this respect is because they are not sufficiently informed as to their duty. Ministers are sensitive about making any reference to the matter of their own support; and this sensitiveness is, in a measure, pardonable, though not always commendable. But in times of distress like those we are now passing through, there is ecial need of calling the attention of the churches to their pecuniary obligations to their pastors. There are many just now who are greatly embarassed in consequence of the backwardness of the churches in paying their salaries. And while special reasons may be pleaded for this delinquency who can believe that they are such as the Lord will accept for the neglect of the necessities of his servants?

Brethren in the churches, as quickly as possible and to the full extent of your ability, correct this evil and thus honor what the Lord has "ordained" as between you and your pastor.

Y. M. C. A .- The eleventh annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of the Lower Provinces will meet at Chatham tomorrow Thursday. In addition to the usual reports from associations the committee propose for discussion the follow subjects: 1. The need of a realization on the part of Christian laymen of their individual responsibility; and the imperative. necessity that they should labor for

2. Association work in its peculiar adaptation to the wants and temptations of young men.

3. How shall I study the Bible-1st, for myself; 2nd, for others. 3. Prayer meetings, Sunday schools, Bible classes and cottage meetings, as fields of usefulness open to the Y. M.

C. Associations.

WOLFVILLE DURING THE SESSION OF for a term. THE CONVENTION.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Central Board, a meeting of the Missionary Aid Societies was held at Wolfville on Monday, August 27th, the vestry of the Baptist Church. Mrs. S. W. deBlois, President of the Wolfville Society, conducted the meeting, and a large number of ladies, including many representatives of sister Societies, listened with interest to the reports of the Central Boards of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island; also to a paper read by Mrs. W. B. Boggs, entitled "Women in India." Another essay, on the subject of "Home training with reference to Missionary work," was read by Mrs. W. S. McKenzie. The proceedings were varied by music and singing at intervals. By special request the ladies re-assembled on Tuesday afternoon to listen to an address from the Rev. A. V. Timpany, returned Missionary from Cocoof the Lord, and that by special honor of | nada, whose graphic descriptions of missionary work in India aroused feelings of much sympathy, and made it an occasion long to be remembered by all present.
