

The commanders of Sistova, Simniza, Bucharest and Jassy have received orders from Russian headquarters to prepare all possible means of transport for wounded men.

Since the success at Kars one party at the Russian headquarters urges, as the Turks have straggled Roumania of troops, that the Russians should make a dash through Shipka and the neighboring passes as soon as Mehemet Ali commences a movement to raise the siege of Plevna. The Russians have sixty thousand men concentrated in the neighborhood of Timova available for such operations.

Although there are marked signs at Belgrade of a desire to take the field there are several causes of contention between Russia and Serbia still unsettled. It is believed Russia is disinclined to accept all the conditions demanded by Serbia.

Seventeen thousand men from the Kars' army will be detached to assist in the siege at Plevna.

Gen Melikoff, when summoning Mukhtar Pasha to evacuate Erzerum, informed him of the capture of Kars, and that if he resisted he would be attacked by eighty thousand men with overwhelming artillery. Mukhtar replied that he would hold Erzerum to the last.

General Melikoff started suddenly for Erzerum on Sunday. He will take command of the besieging forces there. At a council of war at Philippoff a prominent General recommended that a corps be left to cover Erzerum while the remainder of the army pushed through Asia Minor to Scutari.

The Moscow Gazette states that the Russian main army is advancing on Erzerum.

A despatch from Vienna says so far from its being weakened, the Czarowitch's army now consists of eight infantry and four cavalry divisions, numbering from 80,000 to 90,000 men, and though it must go over the line from the Danube to the vicinity of Timova, it will not be easy for the Turks to make much impression upon it since the Russians, by forced marches, can concentrate three or four divisions on any given point in a single day.

Russian newspapers express a strong desire for peace.

The Russians on Saturday captured the fortified town of Entrepol, twenty miles north of the Balkans, with trifling loss. The Turks fled in disorder.

Deaths.

At St. Andrew's, Colchester Co., on Wednesday, 31st ult., Mrs. Mary Pulsifer, aged 79 years. Our departed sister was baptized and united with the Baptist Church at Chester in the fifteenth year of her age, witnessing a good confession, for sixty-four years, and was gathered home at last like a ripe shock of corn. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

At Truro, on the 16th inst., after a long and painful illness, Thomas R. Linton, aged 61 years.

At Cornwallis, of consumption, Nov. 2nd, Mrs. Anna McGregor, wife of Chas. McGregor, and daughter of Dea. George West, of Aylesford, aged 44 years, leaving a sad husband, one son, and one daughter, to mourn their loss. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord" may well be written in letters of gold over the remains of this beloved sister in Christ. Here was one of those wonderful passings away which shuts out the idea of death, and charms even in sorrow the beholder with the beauties of translation. She had a mind richly stored with the precious truths of God's Holy Book. The utterances of her last days flowed like a song of Scripture, full of all the inspiring promises of our beloved christianity, with perfect resignation, unclouded faith, and unwavering trust in the full mediation work of her Saviour, she smiled and fell asleep in Jesus. In early life she gave her heart to Christ, and joined the Berwick Church, where she remained faithful until death. She was noble hearted and generous; her actions were perfumed with the odors of love. She was pure in heart, graceful in manners and prompt to action, kind to the poor, gentle to the sick; she was a fragrant flower in the garden of the Lord, and that crushed flower gave forth in death the consecrated sweetness of a pure Christian life. Many followed her remains to the resting, and to hear a sermon by the writer from Phil. 1. 23.—Com. by Rev. J. L. READ.

At Beirut, Syria, on the 22nd of September, Frank Hubley, M. D., fourth son of Peter and Sarah Hubley, in the 24th year of his age. Dr. H. was born January 31st, 1854. At the age of 16 he was baptized by the Rev. T. C. DeLong, and united with the First Baptist Church at St. Margaret's Bay. He was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association at Tremont Temple, Boston. [Boston papers please copy.]

At Kingston, on the 14th inst., M. M. Daly, Esq., aged 62 years, leaving a wife and three daughters to mourn their loss. The funeral was very largely attended and a sermon was preached by the Pastor from Jer. xii. 5.

At Tremont, on the 20th inst., Mary, youngest daughter of John and Sarah Marshall, aged 17 years. Her end was peaceful and triumphant. The occasion of her funeral was improved by an appropriate sermon by the pastor from Mat. ix. 24.

At Hammond's Plains, Monday 26th, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of David H. Ellis, aged 28 years. Her end was peace.

On the 23rd inst., Stephen Carew.

On Friday, 23rd inst., Dr. William P. Meagher, eldest son of John and Alice Meagher, in the 31st year of his age.

On the 22nd inst., Mr. Alvin Robinson, aged 54 years.

On the 23rd November, Mrs. Catherine Forbes, aged 62 years.

November 23rd, at R. A. Park, Halifax, N. S., Elizabeth Ann, wife of Battery Sergeant Major Thos. Ryan, R. A., aged 32 years.

On the 18th inst., Mrs. Ellen Hagan, aged 45 years.

On the 19th, at Herring Cove, Daniel O'Gorman, aged 80 years.

At the Provincial and City Hospital, on the 20th inst., Stephen Turple, in the 55th year of his age.

At Dartmouth, on Nov. 26th, Sarah J. Finegan, widow of the late Thomas D. Finegan, aged 28 years. Funeral from her mother's residence, near the Rope-walk, on Thursday, at 3 o'clock.

MESSRS. C. GATES AND CO. Gentlemen,—Mr. Daniel Alward, of Butternut Ridge, N. B., appeared before me and made oath that in November, 1876, he was attacked with Diphtheria in its worst form. The Doctor pronounced it a very bad case and gave him some medicine which appeared to ease him, but he took cold and his throat was fast filling up, so he could scarcely breathe. He applied Gates' Acadian Liniment internally and externally with immediate relief. He feels confident that unless he had got relief he could not have lived long.
