A special despatch from Bucharest says the main object of the Russian campaign in Balkans having been accomplished, and ultimate complete succomplished, and ultimate complete success of the Russians assured, the Czar dan McElhinney. The first named was determined to return immediately to an only son of rare promise. These dear children trusted in Jesus, and He has THE DUKE OF ARGYLL, MRS. MULOCH, St. Petersburg. The Turks, in the battle before Plevna, lost 10,000 men killed and wounded; Russian loss unknown.

starving, the hospitals crowded, and scarcely any surgeons in the place. The condition of affairs in the captured city is described as pitiable.

A TeDeum was sung at Bucharest on Tuesday to celebrate Russian success at Plevna. Gortschakoff and Russian and Roumanian authorities were present The Czar and Gortschakoff will return to St. Petersburg in a week. The Czar, after the surrender of Plevna. placed his own carriage and escort at disposal of Osman Pasha.
