Rev. Geo. M. Grant has promised the Temperance Reform Club, to assist them in obtaining subscriptions for purchasing Argyle Hall for their meetings. He met with them on Monday night and encouraged them to stick to their pledge.

THE FISHERY COMMISSION is still sitting in Halifax, eleven witnesses for the British American Fishery Commission, arrived on Monday morning in the steamer Carrol from Boston.

Leander Miller, a young man of St. Andrew's, Colchester Co., met with a sad accident in Taylor's saw-mill on Monday evening. He was reaching over the circular saw to close the gate when the saw caught his arm mangling it fearfully. Dr.'s Morris and McLean were sent for, and on examination found it necessary to amputate the limb just below the shoulder. The young man is doing well this morning.—Com. by Rev. Jas. Meadows, Oct. 10th.

The Amherst Sentinel reports that Mr. J. C. Ayer, of Wallace, has adopted a new mode of putting up lobsters. We quote: "He has, at a heavy expense, erected a factory at Wallace for freezing lobsters. By his process the lobsters after being caught are boiled, allowed to cool and then wiped dry. They are then carried in crates to the refrigerators, Commencing Monday, October 15, 1877. which are fourteen feet square. He has eight of those refrigerators, which are kept at a low temperature by the melting ice, passing through them in galvanized iron pipes.

GRAHAM'S PAIN ERADICATOR .- Chathan P. Q., November, II, 1860,-I had been troubled with pain between my shoulders for more than a year, and also with loss of appetite and genera weakness, so that I was scarcely able to do any work, and was continually grow ing worse, until I used Graham's Pain Eradicator., have been cured by less than two bottles.

MICHAEL BRODIE. I have been cured of a distressing pain between my shoulders by using Graham's Pain Eradicator. ROBERT McCormick,

Chatham, P. Q. Mrs. Heron, Lansing, Ont., says:-" got my elbow hurt by a fall. It remained so painful that I could scarce raise my hand to my head until I used Graham's Pain Eradicator, about three months after, and was cured by one application."

THE MARITIME SCHOOL SERIES,

JUST ISSUED, By Wm. Collins, Sons & Co., LONDON, GLASGOW & EDINBURGH.

THE MARITIME READERS.

THE lessons in them have been compiled and written with special reference to the history, topography and commercial enterprise of Nova Scotia and the neighboring provinces. Selections from the writings of Haliburton Howe from the writings of Haliburton, Howe, Gesner, Forrester, Macgregor and many others, have been inserted. The iliustrations include views of the cities and other interesting Maritime scenery, while the books are printed on superfine paper and bound in extra cloth. In their enterprise the publishers have spared no expense to make the new series the best, cheapest and most suitable for the schools in the OCCUPY FIRST RANK."-Schoolmaster. Maritime Provinces of Canada; and while making arrangements for their introduction in Nova Scotia, they respectfully solicit the co-operation of teachers and all others interested in educa tional progress.

> An Elementary Geography, for use in the Maritime Provinces, has been prepared to supply a want long felt in the schools of this part of the Dominion. It is now an established principle that children should be taught the geography of their own country minutely, and a special effort has been made to bring such information within the reach of each school district at the lowest possible rate. The Geography of the Do-minion of Canada is given in detail, and a number of lessons on other countries have been added, so as to make the book complete as a geography of the world.
