On the 5th inst., at Berwick, of diphtheria, Kisboro F., youngest daughter of Dr. H. C. Marsters, aged 11 years and 9 months. Though mourning deeply the loss of their child, our friends sorrow is not without hope. Stricken by that terrible disease which is laying waste so many homes in this community, our young friend, through severe sufferings, enabled to rejoice in the love and presence of her Saviour, and to comfort her friends with the assurance that she was going to Him who had loved her and given Himself for her, and to meet young friends who had gone before her to the better land.—Com.

At Gulf Shore, on the 2nd inst., Mary, beloved wife of George C. Carter, aged 33, leaving a husband and three children, one an infant, to mourn their loss. Our departed sister, for some years past, felt the importance of a preparation to meet God, and during the revival at Pugwash, two years ago, she felt it to be her duty to identify herself with God's people, and, with her husband, was baptized by Rev. D. W. Crandal, and became a mem-ber of the church at Pugwash. Since ber of the church at Pugwash. Since that time she has been a consistent Christian, a loving wife, and devoted mother. By her death the church has sustained a loss, and she eternal gain.—Com.

At Cheboggin, Dec. 4th, of scarlet fever Alice J. Rose, aged 7 years and 9 months This is the second death which has or curred in Mr. Rose's family in the course of a few days. Only a few days before the demise of this lovely daughter, a son George F. Rose, aged 5 years and months, wrs cut down by the fell des troyer. Thus suddenly have two fair and very flowers been withered, and left their parents to mourn over the loss of their children. We deeply sympathize with them and their family. Jesus has taken these beautiful plants to himself—to his own care and culture in glory. They day, connecting at Annapolis with steamer budded on earth, they will blossom and for St. John. These trains offer special facilbear their fruit in heaven. In prayer at ities for the conveyance of Passengers, evening Alice used the following lines:

O Lord, if I This night should die, What would become of me? My body must Return to dust,

Lord take my soul to Thee. J. W. W. At Pleasant River, on the 18th of Oct. last, Mrs. N. D. Fancy, in the 78th year her age. She was a careful, industrious woman, given to hospitality. The poor and destitute in the neighborhood miss her very much.

GATES'

Acadiam Limiment

Is a Vegetable compound, possessing a well concentrated combination of soothing and healing virtues for external and internal diseases, Inflammations or Pains seated in any part of the body, Chilblains,

To be mixed with the Nerve Cintment for Diphtheria and Sore Throat, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Pleurisy, Spinal Disease or affection of the Spine, Sprains, Felons, etc.

Also excellent for Beasts.

MESSRS. C. GATES AND CO. Gentlemen,—Mr. Daniel Alward, of Butternut Ridge, N. B., appeared before me and made oath that in November, 1876, he was attacked with Diphtheria in ts worst form. The Doctor pronounced t a very bad case and gave him some medicine which appeared to ease him, but he took cold and his throat was fast filling up, so he could scarcely breathe. He applied Gates' Acadian Liniment internally and externally with immediate relief. He feels confident that unless he had got relief he could not have lived
