BY THE USE OF DR. WOODBURY'S

Horse Liniment.

It is a desideratum, the want of which has long been seriously felt by proprietors of horses. All persons who are so situated as to be compelled to keep their horses stabled, know how difficult it is to prevent their feet from becoming feverish, dry, and contracted, with all the innumerable evils attendant on stabling, high feeding, and driving over hard roads.

To all owners of horses so situated, the Proprietor of this Liniment confidently offers it as THE REMEDY, both as a BLANKETS preventive and cure.

Its action is to remove fever and dryness, thereby causing the hoofs which have become hard and brittle, to be softened and elastic, and promotes the rapid growth and full development of soft new growth and full development of soft new hoof in such a manner, as can be best appreciated by being witnessed.

Its beneficial effects are so prompt and decided, as frequently to very far exceed the anticipations of the most sanguine—to excite their admiration—and secure their highest confidence. All horses that are stabled, should have an application of this Liniment to the hoofs of the fore feet, once in every two or three weeks, to preonce in every two or three weeks, to prevent their becoming feverish, dry, brittle, hard, contracted, or otherwise injured.

Horsesthatare foundered, or whose hoofs are contracted, or in any way diseased, should have this Liniment applied to every part of the hoof, every third or fourth day. The more inveterate the case, the more frequent should be the application; and in cases of long standing, should be continued for a sufficient length of time for the old or diseased hoof to become softened, and the growth of the new fully developed.

The Liniment should be applied to every part of the hoof, and rubbed gently into the hair around the upper part of the hoof. It can be best applied with a small
