About 12 years ago, MARTIN L. BAKER was united in marriage to LIZZIE SEREto return to their native land. Consequently they came to the home of his brother, Deacon Leason Baker, of Melvern Square, Wilmot, were cordially received, and, so far as possible, every of the same month, aged 33. Thus the husband and wife, father and mother, just in the morning of life, were cut down in the short space of 11 days. Many friends were left to mourn, but two little orphan daughters have been the greatest losers by that stroke. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. B. had publicly professed religion, but both had been subjects of serious impressions. In a letter to his brother, Mr. B. said, "O! how I miss a praying mother," who had died seven years before, and again, "Tell my dear old uncle to pray for me." To a friend who talked to him about his future prospects some weeks before he died, he said, "I have been praying much for two years, but I never found peace till this last summer."

His sufferings, though great, were borne without a murmur. Finding that death was nigh, he called his friends around him and said, "I am going." "It is growing dark, but Jesus is my light and life." Thus he passed away. His wife, through her long sickness (consumption) was much troubled about her soul. But she saw the Saviour standing by her bed.

Though weak she concluded she must get to his feet, and by a great effort she got there, and oh! how safe and happy exclaiming, amid her sufferings:

"There shall I bathe my weary soul years. Our departed sister professed re-Mission. Some two years ago she gave to stand she has remembered the same $70.00 more. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." She "rests from her labours, and her works do follow her."-

At Lower Argyle, Jan. 26th, Mr. Nehemiah Goodwin, Jr., aged 69 years. Bro.

G. was called away suddenly. The stroke is felt keenly by his sorrowing friends.

They, however, have much cause for consolation, both in his living and dying testimony. Some twelve years ago he made a profession of faith in Jesus, and hope was his as he passed away. By his THA, daughter of the late lamented Dr. Slocomb, of Bridgewater. For some years past they had resided in Boston, but thought it would benefit their health On the evening of the 29th of January a few friends met at Chester Basin Schoolhouse and spent a pleasant evening, in a social way, leaving substantial tokens of their sympathy and regard for their pastor and his family. Conversation and music, Instrumental and Vocal, were the principal enjoyments of the evening. A similar but larger gathering took place in the basement of the meetinghouse in Chester Town on Tuesday evening the 12th inst. At 7 o'clock the chair was taken by Doctor DeWitt who briefly stated the object of the meeting, and conducted the exercises of the evening according to the programme previously arranged. In the course of the evening the boxes went round gathering up the offerings of the people which were presented to the pastor of the church accompanied by a brief address expressive of sympathy with, and attachment to the pastor and his family on the part of the church and congregation as well as the community generally; which was replied to by the pastor expressing as best he could his thankfulness to the audience for their presence, their sympathy and their contributions for the comfort of himself and family. Good and effective speeches were delivered by C. W. McCully, Esq., G. E. DeWitt, Esq., M.D., I. J. Parker, Esq., and C. A. Smith, Esq. These were interspersed with music by the choir, prepared for the prophets," spoke to her by a dream.

A few days before she died she dreamed the occasion. On the whole the meeting was a very enjoyable one, and I trust not altogether unprofitable. Such gatherings have a tendency to unite more firmly the minister and people to gether, and to strengthen and encourage one another in the good work of the Lord.

Yours truly, I. J. SKINNER.

Dear Editor,-Allow me to acknowledge the receipt of a generous donation from the members of the Shelburne Baptist Church and congregation. A kindly gift, "blesses him who gives and him who takes."

Fraternally yours, J. GOODWIN. Shelburne, N. S. Feb. 13th, 1877.
